Scope and Content of Collection
The collection contains records from the Bay Brick Inn (also known as the Baybrick Inn), a popular South of Market guest house, bar and club for women owned by Lauren Hewitt that was open from 1982-1987. The Bay Brick Inn was an important lesbian institution in San Francisco. There are administrative records, including correspondence; publicity materials, including event calendars and press releases; information about, and demo tapes from the entertainers -- primarily musicians and comedians-- who performed at Bay Brick; and photographs. This collection was formerly the Lauren Hewitt papers. The collection has been arranged into five series: Administrative; Publicity; Entertainers; Photographs; and Audiotapes.
