Scope and Content of Collection
This collection contains materials documenting a reunion of ex-staff and patrons of the Full Moon Coffee House on 18th Street, one of the first non-drinking spaces for lesbians in San Francisco. The event drew a large and diverse crowd, and participants compiled a scrapbook, which includes correspondence and a questionnaire. The collection also includes financial records and a list of attendees from the reunion and original documents from the coffeehouse, such as flyers and event calendars.
