Abstract: June Campbell was a lesbian woman who served in World War II. This collection contains scrapbook material and photographs of Campbell and her partner, Mary Ellen “Jo” Johanson, a photographer and designer, as well as other women serving in the Marine Corps in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii during World War II. This collection also includes a couple of earlier photos from the late 1800s to the 1910s of members of Campbell's family. Later photos show Campbell's life with friends in Laguna Beach, California. This collection also includes some correspondence, rosters, postcards, and ephemera.
