Scope and Content of Collection

The Jordan Lee papers document his involvement over several decades in the leadership of the G40+ Club, a San Francisco social organization for men over 40 that he co-founded. Lee (1926-2004) was also an early member of the Mattachine Society. The collection contains personal correspondence; writings and journal entries; G40+ Club and San Francisco Prime Timer records, including its statement of purpose, correspondence, meeting minutes, a button and newscloppings; the Pax et Bonum Award from Dignity; photographs and videos that document San Francisco gay pride parades and other events. The oversize box contains an award honoring Lee for 25 years of leadership in the G40+ Club and a painting by Bruce Lee, both from 1998.
