Abstract: League is the LGBTQ employee group at AT&T. It is the nation's first and largest Gay Employee Business Resource Group. League was founded in 1987 by a group of AT&T employees from Denver who had attended the 1987 March on Washington. Chapters were soon formed in other cities. In 1992, League National was created. The materials in this collection were produced for the annual conference held by League. Topics discussed on the audio and video tapes include workplace discrimination, how to form League chapters, professional skill building, and LGBTQ politics.
