Biography/Administrative History
This collection documents the professional work of award-winning San Francisco filmmaker Todd C. Wilson. Wilson (1963-2005) was best known for his films that focused on interracial gay couples.
Scope and Content of Collection
The bulk of the collection contains 8mm films – none of them apparently Wilson’s work – and photographs, scripts, interview data, production materials, shooting schedules, and headshots and other casting information for Wilson’s films, Rice & Potatoes (1998), Under One Roof (2002) and Can’t Buy Me Love (2006). There are also materials documenting Wilson’s high school days in Troy, NY, college coursework, appointment books, and a sketch diary. The films and photographs are unsorted.
