Scope and Content of Collection
Consists of ephemera from the New Heritage Foundation, which produced theme parties in San Francisco, including the annual "HellBall" Halloween Costume Dance, and from Noble Beast Productions, a not-for-profit company dedicated to giving the earnings of its volunteer-produced events back to the community. Don Spradlin executive produced and founded "Hell Ball" and founded Noble Beast Productions. There are marketing materials from the first three HellBalls, 1996-1998 and for events produced by Noble Beast Productions in 1998, it's first year, including "Pleasure Island," "ReUnion," "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" and "Rise." See also Noble Beat records (2002-07).
