Abstract: The Discovery Community was established to promote the welfare of gay and lesbian persons by providing opportunities for personal growth and community building, and working to eliminate prejudice based on sexual orientation. Discovery holds retreats, produces social events, and provides a forum for men (largely) to explore their sexuality. The bulk of the collection consists of materials about retreats, but it also includes financial records, organizational records (including by-laws), board and other meeting minutes and a light blue banner (88 in. wide and 34 in. high).

Language of Material: English
