Biography: Phyllis Lyon

Phyllis Ann Lyon was born November 10, 1924, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and raised primarily in Northern California. She graduated from Sacramento Senior High School in 1943 and went on to the University of California, Berkeley, where she received a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism in 1946. She later (1976) earned a Doctor of Education in Human Sexuality from the Institute for Advanced Study of Human Sexuality (IASHS). Lyon served as a police-beat reporter in Fresno and as a reporter at the Chico Enterprise-Record during the 1940s. In the 1950s she served on the editorial staff at two building trades magazines in Seattle (she is listed as Editorial Assistant in a 1951 edition of Construction News Bulletin). After returning to San Francisco in 1953 she worked at Glide Urban Center. She served as a professor at IASHS from 1976-1987. San Francisco Mayor George Moscone appointed her to the San Francisco Human Rights Commission (HRC) in 1976, and she served as Chair in 1982-1983. She also was chair of the HRC's Lesbian/Gay Advisory Committee. Lyon has lectured and written extensively on human sexuality, censorship, and the Lesbian and Feminist Movements. She also co-founded the National Sex Forum and served as associate director and then co-director for 19 years.

Biography: Del Martin

Del Martin was born Dorothy L. Taliaferro in San Francisco, California on May 5, 1921 to Jones and Mary Taliaferro. She was salutarian of the first graduating class of George Washington High School (San Francisco). Martin studied journalism at San Francisco State College (now California State University San Francisco). Her last name became Martin during her four year marriage to a man. She latter officially changed her name to Del. This marriage also resulted in a daughter (Kendra Mon) and eventually two grandchildren, Lorraine and Kevin Mon. She was the first "out of the closet" lesbian elected to the National Board of the National Organization for Women (NOW) in 1973. Martin became a nationally known advocate for battered women, and was a co-founder of the Coalition for Justice for Battered Women (1975), La Casa de las Madres (a shelter for battered women) founded in 1976, and the California Coalition against Domestic Violence (1977). She is the author of Battered Wives (1976, updated 1981) and numerous other articles and book chapters on the subject. She lectured and taught at colleges and universities around the country. Martin was also a founding member of the Lesbian Mother's Union, the San Francisco Women's Centers, and the Bay Area Women's Coalition, and has served on many boards. She was appointed Chair of the San Francisco Commission on the Status of Women in 1976 and served on the committee until 1979. She also served on the Women's Advisory Council to the San Francisco Police Department, the California Commission on Crime Control and Violence Prevention, and the San Francisco Human Rights Commission.

Biography: Lyon & Martin

Lyon and Martin met in Seattle, Washington in the early 1950s, while they were both working for building trades publications. They were platonic friends for two years before becoming romantically involved. They returned to San Francisco together in 1953 where they continue to reside. In 1955, they were part of a group of eight lesbians that founded the Daughters of Bilitis (DOB). The group was founded to counteract the loneliness and isolation they felt as lesbians, creating what was to become the first national combined lesbian organization and support network. Martin served as president from 1957-60 and Lyon was president in 1962. DOB began publishing the monthly magazine The Ladder in 1956. Lyon was the first editor (1956-1969) with Barbara Grier joining Martin and then taking over as editor. Together Lyon and Martin were among the founders of the Council on Religion and the Homosexual (CRH) in 1964, and, in 1965, Citizen's Alert (a citizen/civil rights group dealing with police brutality complaints). They also were among the founding members of the Alice B. Toklas Lesbian/Gay Democratic Club. They jointly authored the groundbreaking book Lesbian/Woman, and they both attended the International Women's Year Conference in Houston in 1977 where they helped get a lesbian rights plank into the national women's agenda. In the 1980s Martin and Lyon helped found and lead Bay Area Feminists Against Censorship.

Besides their individual careers and recognitions, Lyon and Martin, have received numerous joint honors: in 1980, the Lyon-Martin Clinic in San Francisco was named after them, and they have served as Grand Marshals or special guests in Gay Pride marches across California and the country. They received the Earl Warren Civil Liberties Award from the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in 1990, and an Outstanding Public Service Award from the Society for the Scientific Study of Sexuality in 1996. Lyon and Martin are also partners in LyMar Associates, a San Francisco consulting firm started in 1972. In response to a 1984 questionnaire, distributed by the Advocate, asking what was their most important contribution to gay causes, Lyon and Martin both answered with variations on the statement: "being able to help make changes in the way Lesbians and Gay men view themselves & how the larger society views Lesbians and Gay men." To the question: "What is the most valuable thing you've gotten from your involvement with gay causes?" They replied, "self-acceptance, self-esteem, self confidence" and "a good sense of my own self-worth." In the self-identification section, they also both crossed out "gay woman" and wrote in "Lesbian."

Scope and Content

This collection documents the joint and individual work lives of life-partners Phyllis Lyon and Del Martin, from the Homophile movement of the 1950s to the end of the twentieth century. The collection is strongest in materials connected to Lyon and Martin's involvement with several major organizations, and for material from the 1960s and 1970s. There is only a scattering of personal information or materials from the 1990s. The collection includes: correspondence, manuscripts and manuscript drafts, organizational papers including minutes, constitutions, flyers, and financial documents.

The collection contains significant amounts of material relating to the administration and activities of the Daughters of Bilitis (DOB). There also is a large quantity of material relating to Lyon and Martin's various involvements with the National Organization for Women (NOW), various San Francisco city commissions, and a wide variety of other important organizations ranging from early homophile groups (1950s) and the gay liberation groups of the 1970s, through the pornography and censorship debates and other concerns of the 1980s and 1990s.

This collection contains detailed materials relating to Lyon and Martin's groundbreaking book Lesbian/Woman, and Martin's book Battered Wives. Also included are drafts and notes for numerous other articles, chapters and speeches by Lyon and/or Martin on topics ranging from domestic violence and lesbian mothers to the history of the lesbian movement. Lyon and Martin's extensive research and clipping files further document the range of topics and issues that caught their attention over the years. The collection mainly documents Lyon's and Martin's writing and activism, though there is a small personal papers series that includes materials ranging from Lyon's High School and College Yearbooks, horse-related scrapbooks to materials concerning spiritualist activities, some family correspondence and papers.

Subjects and Indexing Terms

Daughters of Bilitis

Daughters of Bilitis (San Francisco Chapter), 1: 1955-1979

Physical Description: 4.0 boxes and 17 folders

Scope and Contents note

This series includes documents related to the founding of the Daughters of Bilitis (DOB), and the administration, activities, and membership of the San Francisco Chapter including its interactions with the National Chapter. Materials include original constitution, bylaws, correspondence, legal documents, membership records, financial reports, newsletters, flyers, clippings, and other materials.

Arrangement note

The series is divided into four subseries: A. Administrative Files; B. Membership Files; C. Financial Files; and D. Outreach Files.

Administrative Files, A: 1955-1978Physical Description: 1.0 box and 11 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries contains records relating to the founding of the Daughters of Bilitis (DOB), including the original constitution and bylaws, documentation relating to DOB's incorporation in California in 1957, correspondence with DOB's attorney regarding obtaining nonprofit status, and other legal issues. Correspondence between the officers of the San Francisco DOB, other chapters, and the National Governing Board include information on the planning of the first national convention in 1960 and the 1961 DOB officers retreat. The retreat focused on the DOB's role in the homophile movement, anti-homosexual bills, and the possibility of maintaining a homophile desk or exhibit at the 1964 New York World's Fair.

Also included are minutes from SF DOB chapter meetings beginning with the first organizational meeting in October 1955. The minutes record the establishment of chapters, election of officers, affiliations with other homophile organizations, media relations, and participation in protests. Business of other chapters is discussed in SF minutes when it has a bearing on the organization as a whole. The minutes sometimes show the lighter side of DOB, such as the 1961 minutes which read "at the conclusion of Wagon Train the meeting was called to order," or a 1962 meeting: "The treasurer reported. Since the secretary couldn't find the minutes we had a few minute of silence while everyone tried to remember what happened last time."

National Convention Files, B: 1960-1970Physical Description: 20.0 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries contains materials relating to the biennial National Conventions of DOB, including correspondence, brochures, programs, press releases, list of attendees etc. The First National Convention of DOB was held in San Francisco in May 1960, and was attended by 150 people. The theme of the first convention was "A Look at the Lesbian." These files contain correspondence with participants on the "Why the Lesbian?" panel, along with responses from subscribers to a survey in The Ladder asking "Why are you a lesbian?" The fourth biennial convention in San Francisco in 1966 was part of Ten Days in August, hosted by the city's homophile organizations DOB, NACHO (North American Conference of Homophile Organizations), SIR (Society for Individual Rights), and the Tavern Guild, during which seminars were offered on theology, legal and penal reforms, communication and leadership training, as well as social events. The theme of the DOB Convention was "San Francisco and its Homophile Community, a Merging Social Conscience." At the sixth biennial convention in New York in 1970, the National Governing Board gave chapters total autonomy to do what was needed in their areas. DOB was retained as a national organization, with a new national board made up of the presidents of each local unit, whose primary function was to maintain contact between chapters, to authorize new ones, and to arrange a national meeting every other year. At the 1970 convention DOB officially disassociated itself from The Ladder, because a legal fight to retain it would be costly and would probably result in the end of magazine. The physical production of The Ladder had been moved to Reno, Nevada by editor Barbara Grier and Rita Laporte, amid controversy.

Research Project Files, D: 1958-1972Physical Description: 13.0 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries contains correspondence, research proposals, and research papers relating to the studies in which DOB members participated. These files include questionnaires sent to subscribers of The Ladder by Florence Conrad, DOB's research director, to collect data on patterns of lesbian living (e.g., butch, femme), earliest attraction to women, history of athletic and physical activity, family history, etc. In 1968, Conrad did a study of mental health professionals, and their ideas about homosexuality; her results were published in Psychological Reports in 1971, a copy of which is included in these files. These files contain correspondence relating to Jess Stearn's research for The Grapevine, and the controversy surrounding his portrayal of the NY DOB members he interviewed.

Book Service Files, H: 1960-1964Physical Description: 12.0 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries contains information relating to the DOB Book Service. The Book Service was started following the 1960 convention with a twofold purpose -- to raise money for the national organization and to make books on lesbianism available to the general public. These files include lists of books and records available for sale, publisher correspondence, some catalogs and advertisements, and book orders. The initial offering of seven titles included Sex Variant Women in Literature, by Jeannette H. Foster, Checklist of Lesbian Literature, by Marian Zimmer Bradley (mimeographed, with supplements), Gay Bar, by Helen P. Branson, and Odd Girl and The Third Sex by Artemis Smith. A 45 rpm recording of gay folk songs by "pert perky Lisa Ben From Los Angeles," was also offered, and these files contain correspondence related to this fund raiser. "Lisa Ben" was the stage name of Edythe Eyde, who had been the publisher of Vice Versa, the first lesbian publication, in the 1940s.

The Ladder Files, I: 1956-1984Physical Description: 2.0 boxes and 15 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries contains correspondence and documents pertaining to The Ladder, first published from 1956-1970 by DOB, and by Barbara Grier and Rita Laporte from 1970-1972. The first issue in October 1956 was a 12 page mimeographed newsletter in magazine format. The cover design showed a line of women approaching a very tall ladder which protruded from the shore of the bay and reached up into cloudy skies. It carried the legend "From the city of many moods-San Francisco, California." In the right hand corner was the DOB emblem, and the DOB motto "qui vive," meaning on the alert, or on guard. The Ladder was a monthly magazine until 1968, when it started publishing every two months.

Correspondence between editors and readers in these files often involves multiple letters. There are also correspondence and manuscripts from contributors, and correspondence among staff of The Ladder, and officers of DOB. These files include information regarding the republication of material from The Ladder in anthologies published by Diana Press, a reprint agreement with Arno Press, and research papers on The Ladder.

Other Chapters of DOB, 3: 1958-1990Physical Description: 3.0 boxesScope and Contents note

This series contains correspondence minutes, membership records, financial records and/or newsletters from a number of other chapters of the Daughters of Bilitis from around the country and Australia. The New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and Boston chapters are the best documented with some materials also available for the Philadelphia, New Jersey, Cleveland, Reno, New Orleans, Dallas, Florida and Melbourne, Australia chapters.

The New York chapter files contain correspondence, minutes, newsletters, and memberships. The correspondence starts in the early 1960s and then there is a gap until 1970, when a concerned member wrote Del Martin and Phyllis Lyon about a new New York DOB brochure that called DOB "an organization for ALL women, regardless of orientation," as opposed to a lesbian organization. There are minutes for the New York chapter beginning in September 1958. The New York chapter newsletter of September 1969 discussed the Stonewall riots in an article The Birth of Gay Power; the February 1971 issue announced a workshop on feminism coordinated by Ti-Grace Atkinson.

The Los Angeles chapter was granted equal status with San Francisco DOB at the 1960 DOB convention. These files contain a little correspondence, some recommendations to the National Governing Board, membership information, financial statements, and LA DOB, the newsletter from 1970-1971. The Los Angeles DOB did not maintain continuous operation from 1960-1971, folding at least once in the 1960s.

The Chicago chapter was officially recognized by the National Governing Board in 1962. Chicago chapter files include correspondence with other chapters, and national officers, with members, and regarding public appearances and spokeswomen for DOB, and relations with religious and homophile organizations in the Midwest, etc. The Chicago chapter dissolved in 1967.

The Boston chapter was established in 1970 and was the last extant DOB chapter. It celebrated its twentieth anniversary in 1990.

Homophile and Gay Liberation Organizations, 4: 1960-1986

Physical Description: 5.0 boxes and 22 folders

Scope and Contents note

The Homophile and Gay Liberation Organizations Series documents lesbian and gay rights organizations Lyon and Martin were active in or had a peripheral interest in, concurrently with or subsequent to their involvement in DOB. Homophile Organizations are defined as organizations formed before 1969, and Gay Liberation Organizations are those formed and active after 1969. The traditional "break-of" point of June 27, 1969 (the Stonewall Riots) was not used because this does not necessarily reflect the political reality in San Francisco and for ease in processing.

Arrangement note

The series is divided into five subseries: A. Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Documents, B. Homophile -- Bay Area, C. Homophile -- National, International, and Regional, D. Gay Liberation -- Northern California, and E. Gay Liberation -- National and International.

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Documents, A: 1980-1986, n.d.Physical Description: 4.0 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries contains information and reports collected by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) on The Daughters of Bilitis, the Mattachine Society and other homophile groups. The documents were released after the enactment of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). The act was passed by Congress in 1966 and amended in 1974. The FOIA made it possible for individuals to request the no longer secret portions of their own FBI files, as well as the files of other people or organizations. These requests were not always answered promptly or completely thus the suit by Dan Siminoski, a political scientist, professor, writer and historian which led to the release of the FBI documents included here. Del Martin's supporting declaration is included with the legal documents.

This subseries includes materials on a number of different homophile organizations. The Council on Religion and the Homosexual (CRH) is the best documented. Included are extensive documentation of CRH activities during the 1960s and a small amount of materials from the early 1970s. Well documented events include the New Year's Ball sponsored and held by CRH on January 1, 1965. Attendees were harassed and arrested by police and this became a turning point in the local gay rights movement. Lyon and Martin, members of the homophile community and representatives of various Protestant churches helped found CRH in 1964 "to promote a continuing dialogue between the religious community and homosexuals." They both served on the board of directors. Martin also served as secretary and Lyon as co-chair in the CRH's very early years. Martin was appointed by Bishop James A. Pike to the Episcopal Diocese of California's Joint Committee on Homosexuality and served from 1965 to 1966. There is one large folder documenting Martin's participation on this committee. The other folders in this subseries document other homophile rights groups active in the 1960s in the Bay Area. The documentation is not as extensive as the organizations mentioned previously. Lyon and Martin were involved in many of these groups either actively or on the periphery. A few of the files contain materials collected by Lyon and Martin on organizations they were not involved with. Also included in this subseries are Bay Area newspaper clippings concerning lesbian and gay issues during the decade.

Homophile -- National, International and Regional, 1955-1988 C: 1955-1988Physical Description: 1.0 box and 19 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries documents the expanse and variety of the Homophile movement in the 1950s and 1960s. Included are mostly printed or mimeographed materials from a variety of organizations that Lyon and Martin participated in or followed as part of the Homophile movement of the time. Included are documents from the Mattachine Society (both national and regional), the East Coast Homophile Organization (ECHO), National Planning Conference of Homophile Organizations, ONE, Inc. and others. The "protest" files provide fliers from the protests organized by Frank Kameny (of the Mattachine Society of Washington, D.C.) in Washington and Philadelphia that took place in 1965 and 1966 to end the firing of homosexual federal employees among other issues.

Correspondence, 5: 1958-1991Physical Description: 7.0 boxes and 9 foldersScope and Contents note

In general Lyon and Martin were not personal letter writers, so this series is not very large. The vast bulk of the correspondence is incoming. Not until the late 1980s did Lyon and Martin save some of their outgoing letters. Lyon and Martin tended to file incoming correspondence with materials concerning the same subject matter and did not keep all their correspondence together. For example, under the Domestic Violence Series there are many letters asking for information or assistance from Martin.

Arrangement note

The Correspondence Series contains 4 subseries: A. Lesbian/Woman, B. Lesbian Mothers, C. Domestic Violence/Battered Wives, and D. Personal and Business Correspondence.

Lesbian/Woman, A: 1972-1983Physical Description: 1.0 box and 12 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries contains the correspondence received after the publication of the first two editions of Lesbian/Woman. The majority of this correspondence is from 1972 through 1973 and is mostly incoming, though there is a sprinkling of Lyon and Martin's responses. They made a point of trying to answer the correspondence of all the lesbians who took the time to write to them. The correspondence in this series has been arranged alphabetically by subject. This was done by Lyon and Martin in their desire to write a follow-up book to Lesbian/Woman containing letters they had received. The letters cover a wide variety of subjects from teenagers and young women to isolated lesbians and lesbians in foreign countries. Many of the letters are extremely personal offering the reader much information on the writer's life. For many of the correspondents, this may have been the first time they opened acknowledged their lesbianism.

The "special friends" correspondence includes letters from Jane Rule, Rita Mae Brown, Julie Lee (additional correspondence can be found in the DOB - New Jersey correspondence files), Elsa Gidlow, Kay Tobin, and Harry Hay. See also the letters in the Personal and Business Correspondence subseries. A small amount of correspondence is in response to an article in Ms Magazine published around the time of Lesbian/Women.

Also included in this section are letters received after Lyon and Martin appeared on the Phil Donahue show in 1972. These letters are from a more diverse group of people since the show reached a wider audience than the book. Included is a folder of religious hate letters and assorted religious literature sent as enclosures.

Arrangement note

Photographs sent to Lyon and Martin with correspondence have been removed to the Photo series.

Personal and Business Correspondence, D: 1958-1991Physical Description: 3.0 boxes and 4 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries is divided into two sections the first consists of letters organized alphabetically by correspondent. This correspondence is generally but not exclusively from friends. There is a small amount of correspondence in this subseries concerning "political aspects" of Lyon and Martin's lives. With a few exceptions the correspondence covers the 1970s through 1991. Some of the well-known correspondents include novelists Rita Mae Brown and Jane Rule. There is also a 1972 letter after the publication of Lesbian/Woman and 1980s correspondence with Helen "Sandy" Sandoz (her DOB name was Helen Sanders) and Stella Rush a couple that were early and active members of DOB-LA. Additional correspondence from Sandy and Stella is located in the DOB series. Much of the earlier correspondents covers DOB activities.

The second section comes after the alphabetical section and is arranged chronologically. It is composed of a mixture of fundraising or information requests, a few short personal letters, endorsements of various political candidates, letters from political figures they endorsed, and requests to speak. San Francisco politician Dianne Feinstein is well represented. This section primarily contains business/political activity related correspondence. They were originally intermingled with clippings and other items never filed. For ease in processing the letters were removed and organized chronologically. The last folder in the series contains assorted note and greeting cards sent to Lyon and Martin covering roughly the 1970s and 1980s.

First section is arranged alphabetically, the second chronologically.

Writings, 6: 1964-1992

Physical Description: 12.0 boxes and 13 folders

Scope and Contents note

This series covers all of Lyon and Martin's writings from Lesbian/Woman manuscripts to speech notes. The size of this series indicates how much both Martin and Lyon wrote. In many of the other series are various notes taken on these subjects along with duplicate pieces of the writings contained in this series. In order to make their writings more accessible to researchers much of this materials has been culled from the subject files where it was originally contained. Many of the writings overlap in their central theme if not in the majority of what is written. The researcher will find notes on many of the writings identifying it as originally a piece written for another purpose. The writings are an excellent introduction to Martin and Lyons political thinking over time. Lyon and Martin had intended to write two additional books, one on lesbian mothers and one, in the 1980s, concerning censorship and the feminist anti-pornography campaigns. They were concerned with the direction many of these campaigns were taking in regards to censoring pornography. Lyon and Martin were very strong in their stance that any form of censorship is a threat to our civil liberties. Drafts of several chapters are found in the Sexuality, Porn, Censorship & Feminism folder in Subseries C. General Writings.

Arrangement note

The series is arranged in seven subseries: A. Lesbian/Woman, B. Battered Wives, C. General, D. Domestic Violence, E. Lesbian Mothers, F. Speeches, and G. Notes.

General Writings, C: 1960-1993Physical Description: 2.0 boxesScope and Contents note

This subseries primarily contains writings on feminism, and lesbian and gay subjects organized alphabetically by title. The documents from the 1960s, mostly written by Martin, reflect the issues that were of major concern to them at the time; the homophile movement (especially lesbians in it), police harassment, and the church. The later writings reflect the emergence of feminism and their shift to women's issues and lesbians. A few writings explicitly describe this shift in their political focus. If That's All There Is (1970), by Martin is a public statement on why they left the homophile community for the women's movement. This file also includes correspondence received in response to the articles publication in Vector. Also included is the manuscript for a small book written by Lyon and Martin, Lesbian Love and Liberation: The Yes Book of Sex (1973).

Untitled writings have been assigned subject headings and these folder titles are in brackets. For writings that were for an article or a chapter in a book - the title of the article or chapter appears first in quotation marks followed by the book or periodical title in italics. If known, titles are followed by the authors last names. An attempt has been made to identify whether the piece was written jointly by Lyon and Martin or co-authored with others. Where an author name is lacking this information was not readily available.

Arrangement note

The subseries is arranged alphabetically by title or assigned subject.

Police Oversight, 7: 1965-1988

Physical Description: 2.0 boxes and 29 folders

Scope and Contents note

This series documents Del Martin's efforts in the monitoring and reform of San Francisco Police Department's activities from the mid 1960s through 1980. The series is concerned primarily with two issues -the monitoring of unwarranted police harassment and violence against civilians and the drive to open the police department to women officers. For additional material on violence, some of it related to police response, see also Series 8. Organizations, Committees, Coalitions (primarily Subseries D. Commission on Crime Control and Violence Prevention, Subseries K. San Francisco Commission on the Status of Women, and Subseries L. San Francisco Human Rights Commission), Series 19. Clippings Files, and Series 6. Writings.

Arrangement note

This series contains five subseries: A. Citizens Alert, B. Mayor's Council on Criminal Justice, C. Miscellaneous Police Issues, D. Women Police Officers, and E. Printed Materials.

Citizens Alert, A: 1965-1972

Physical Description: 22.0 folders

Scope and Contents note

This subseries contains materials documenting the activities of Citizens Alert. This important and pioneering community group in San Francisco was formed in August 1965, their purpose "to collect, analyze and channel to responsible governmental and social agencies accurate, reliable reports growing out of charges of police misbehavior including brutality, harassment and unequal enforcement and application of the law...." Much of the documentation is concerned with how best to monitor the police department and plans for police department reform. In order to achieve its goal Citizens Alert operated a 24 hour telephone hotline to report incidents and put pressure on the police department and public officials to be more responsive to charges of police department intimidation, harassment, and brutality. They also strove to educate the public on their civil rights if approached or arrested by a police officer. Citizens Alert's membership and board were composed of individuals from many different communities in San Francisco. Martin was a founding member and served as chairperson in 1969 and as a member of the board from 1969 to 1972

News clippings covering much of Citizens Alert's and police activity for the mid to late 1960s is contained in Subseries E. Printed Materials.

General Physical Description note: 35 boxes plus oversized material

Scope and Contents note

This series highlights Martin and Lyon's volunteer work with various organizations, committees and commissions from the late 1960s through the early 1990s. The bulk of the materials are from the 1970s through the mid 1980s. The series contains minutes, correspondence and other administrative documents such as reports, there is very little financial information. In addition to administrative documents the bulk of the files are related to programming for the various organizations. These files include conference and public hearing materials, subject files, task forces and committees, along with printed newsletters and brochures.

The series documents Lyon and Martin's dedication for preserving and expanding the civil rights of everyone but especially lesbians, gay men, and women. Martin's involvement in the National Organization for Women (NOW), The [California] Commission on Crime Control and Violence (CCCVP), and the [San Francisco] Commission on the Status of Women (COSW) is well documented. Lyon was active in the San Francisco Human Rights Commission (HRC) and especially its Gay and Lesbian Advisory Committee (GLAC). Together they participated in International Women's Year (IWY) organizing, both were elected delegates to the 1977 conference in Houston Texas; The Coalition for Human Rights (CHR); the Lesbian Caucus [of San Francisco]; and the San Francisco Feminist Democrats.

The Coalition for Human Rights was founded in 1981 as a response to the intensifying of right wing politics, especially the Moral Majority and its campaign against gays and lesbians. The Coalition consisted of representatives from thirty-five predominantly lesbian, gay and bisexual community groups who combined to orchestrate a coordinated response to these serious threats. Martin served as a representative of the Commission on Crime Control and Violence Prevention (CCCVP) and Lyon as representative of the city's Human Rights Commission (HRC). The files indicate that the group was short lived with documentation ending in 1983. The subseries contains minutes, correspondence, materials from the three committees: education, issues, and outreach, and a folder on a conference presented in November 1981 on the Family Protection Act.

Commission on Crime Control and Violence Prevention (CCCVP), D: 1979-1983Physical Description: 4.0 boxes and 8 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries documents the Commission on Crime Control and Violence Prevention (CCCVP) and their charge to seek out the root causes of violence in our society. Martin served for the life of this California State Commission from 1979 through 1983. Members of the commission researched the current academic knowledge on violent crimes then presented their findings through a series of public hearings, reports, and recommendations to government agencies responsible for crime prevention and public safety. The CCCVP files are divided into administrative files and subject files. The administrative files include materials relating to personnel selection, the CCCVP's mission, the planning of public hearings, the process of selecting academic research for the CCCVP's literature review, bylaws, majority and minority reports publicity, and lists of crime-related legislation proposed and approved by the California legislature during 1981 and 1982. Descriptions of the bills and Martin's handwritten notes are included.

The Causes and Prevention of Violence public hearings were the most visible aspect of CCCVP's work. Materials include proceedings on subjects from "Birthing and Infant Bonding" to "Violence in American Life." To complement the public hearing files are subject files containing detailed information on the root causes of crime and violence that were not discussed at the public meetings. The files contain printed materials and special papers requested especially for the CCCVP from academics and others on various areas of violence prevention. The subjects span nutritional causes, and childhood causes, to the socio-economic causes of violent crime.

International Woman's Year, E: 1975-1987Physical Description: 2.0 boxes and 9 foldersScope and Contents note

Both Lyon and Martin were elected California State delegates to the November 1977 International Year of the Woman (IWY) Conference in Houston, Texas. The United Nations declared 1975 the International Women's Year and designated 1975 to 1985 as the Decade for Women. The aim was to improve the lives of women worldwide. This subseries covers both organizing and fundraising prior to the conference and post-conference organizing work through 1987. The IWY files are arranged chronologically into Pre-Conference, Conference, and Post-Conference, followed by Printed Materials. Pre-Conference materials include delegate selection, logistics of the platform the California delegates would introduce at the Houston Conference, fundraising "Send a Woman to Houston" Campaign, discussion of the IWY's mission, and publicity. IWY Conference files reflect the nuts and bolts of the November 1977 workshop sessions. There are letters, workshop guides, memos, publicity flyers, handwritten notes, resolutions, issues statements, and official conference flyers contained here. There are documents reflecting much of the work required of Lyon, Martin and other delegates including a requirement that they prepare a report to the President and U.S. Congress, and to remain involved in the follow-up committee, "The National Advisory Committee for Women." There are official convention pamphlets, memos, notes, flyers, resolutions, schedules and newsletters, that help illustrate the main concerns of convention delegates, most notably abortion rights and ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA). Lesbian rights were also on the agenda and there are numerous newsletters found here from all around the country, urging delegates to view lesbian rights as a woman's civil rights issue.

The Post-Conference Files reflect the numerous follow-up conferences and organizing activities. There is a file on a June 1980 conference, "American Women: Issues and Progress in the UN Decade for Women, 1976-1985." Also included are materials relating to the Continuing Committee of the National Women's Conference, the post-Houston strategizing committee created to implement and publicize decisions made at the conference, and files concerning implementation of The National Plan of Action from 1977 to 1979. See also Subseries J. San Francisco Feminist Democrats in this series. The final Printed Matter file contains official IWY booklets on the elderly and on homemakers, along with newsletters from around the country.

It includes both administrative materials (minutes, meeting agendas, membership applications, correspondence, etc.) and Task Force files. Martin and Lyon were active in the Golden Gate and San Francisco Chapters of NOW; Martin was Secretary locally from 1968-1969 and Chair of the Political Committee from 1969-1970.

Materials of special interest include a 1979 letter from SF NOW to Martin and Lyon pledging support for the rights of lesbian mothers facing custody cases, and stating their desire to reactivate the NOW Lesbian Task Force; the Golden Gate NOW by-laws, materials relating to a 1968 NOW meeting that discussed, "Are Housewives People?"; a 1975 day-long strike called "Alice Doesn't" held to protest low wages for most jobs held by women, and a 1968 sing-in in front of the San Francisco Chronicle Newspaper Building, protesting the "separate-but-equal" help wanted ads, which were segregated along gender lines. There are also materials (1968-1974) documenting ERA lobbying, repeal of state sodomy laws, the legalization of abortion, statewide conferences, and fundraising. Also noteworthy is their work in 1979 with the San Francisco Unified School District to retain a diversity program at a city high-school called Opportunity II, and the formation in 1973 of a statewide NOW Sexuality and Lesbianism Task Force. However, very little is contained in the lesbian task force file beyond notes on the impending repeal of sodomy laws in California, and the problem of Anita Bryant; the lack of material more likely reflects the incomplete state of the entire collection since it was well known that this issue was a bone of contention between Lyon and Martin and the NOW leadership. Letters and promotional flyers for the Mental Health Task Force and the Women Prisoners Task Force are included. There are letters from Dr. Nancy Jewell Cross to Bay Area and national elected officials advocating more civil rights for women.

National NOW, I: 1966-1995

Physical Description: 6.0 boxes

Scope and Contents note

This subseries contains materials related to Lyon and Martin's various involvements with the National Organization of Women (NOW) on the national level. These materials document the expansion of NOW during the mid-1970s into a national organization from the smaller, grass-roots rabble rousing that marked its beginnings in the late 1960s. Lyon and Martin were both on national committees. Martin was on the National Board of Directors and on the Committee for Grievances and Conflict. Lyon was on the National Nominating Committee.

The National NOW files are extensive. Contained in the subseries are many files documenting NOW conferences -- regional, national and subject oriented. Of interest is a conference on battered women's issues. There is also extensive documentation of domestic violence in the National Task Force on Battered Women/Household Violence from 1975 to 1976, on which Martin served from 1975 to 1977, and in the Domestic Violence Subject Files. Other Task Forces documented range from [Women in the] Arts to Religion. There is a large amount of material concerning the battle for passage of the Equal Rights Amendment, abortion rights, and the establishment of the NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund.

There are surprisingly few files concerning the lesbian issue in NOW. There is a California NOW 1977 file and a folder concerning National NOW (1970, 1975) policies both filed under task forces. There is rather extensive documentation of internal splits and grievances within NOW spanning 1972 to 1975. These include The Majority Caucus files and Grievance Committee files in the administrative and printed materials sub-subseries.

Arrangement note

The subseries is divided into six sub-subseries: i. Administrative Files, ii. Task Force Files, iii. Conference Files, iv. Subject Files, v. Printed Materials, and vi. Miscellaneous.

Administrative Files, i: 1966-1980Physical Description: 1.0 box and 14 foldersScope and Contents note

This sub-subseries consists of a number of documents outlining the evolution of the national organization's administrative structure: financial statements, local meeting minutes and national conference minutes, by-laws, promotional flyers, long-range planning documents, rules on setting up local chapters, formation of National Committee on Grievances and Complaints, along with a grievance filed by a group trying to form a St. Paul, Minnesota chapter. Charges of racism emerged in this grievance that took place during 1973 and 1974, followed by Martin's own assertion that the committee was bogged down in red tape, prompting her to step down from the committee once her term was up. There are also records from Connecticut lesbian and NOW member Claire Connelly, regarding a 1973 grievance she filed over sex discrimination at her job. There is a third file on grievances, including correspondence from 1972-1974 on the defeat of "special interest" NOW chapters as suggested by a New Jersey chapter to accommodate lesbians and ethnic minorities.

There's a look into how NOW joined the computer age with the 1973 computerization of their offices, the litigation policies formed in 1974, and Lyon's and Martin's 1968 membership applications are included. A 1975 publication put out by the National Advisory Committee, Perspective, is enclosed. Also of note are the materials on the Majority Caucus that was convened in 1974 and 1975. There is a large amount of material related to the drawn-out battle to pass the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) and the establishment of the NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund.

San Francisco Feminist Democrats, J: 1978-1983Physical Description: 2.0 foldersScope and Contents note

This subseries contains two folders documenting Lyon and Martin's participation in the San Francisco Feminist Democrats. The files consist of minutes and administrative materials. The San Francisco Feminist Democrats were founded in 1978 to implement the National Plan of Action adopted at the International Women's Year conference in Houston. They encouraged the greater participation of women in Democratic party politics to secure women's place in elected office as well as on boards and commissions. Martin served as President of the organization in 1979.

Martin was appointed to the San Francisco Commission on the Status of Women (COSW) by Mayor George Moscone in early 1976. She was elected Chair in July 1976, serving to 1977 and served on the Commission to 1979. The Commission was formed in June of 1975 by an act of the Board of Supervisors. The charge of the Commission was to eliminate barriers which restrict women from full participation in the economic, educational, political and social affairs of the city. The bulk of materials document the years of Martin's service. The official COSW newsletter, Womanews can be found in the GLBTHS Periodical collection.

Arrangement note

The extensive COSW files are divided into three sub-subseries: i. Administrative Files, ii. Programming Files, and iii. Fellow Commissions Files.

Administrative Files, i: 1973-1985Physical Description: 3.0 boxesScope and Contents note

This sub-subseries includes a file on the creation of COSW, minutes, various reports, and media documents. Also included are materials concerning a grievance by Executive Director Catherine Smallwood (1977-1978) over her termination and the termination of the Associate Director. One folder on this topic has been restricted until xxxx. The Smallwood controversy was one of many reasons Martin gave for her resignation from COSW.

San Francisco Human Rights Commission (HRC)/ Gay and Lesbian Advisory Committee (GLAC), L: 1970-1994

Physical Description: 7.0 boxes

Scope and Contents note

This subseries contains materials relating to the San Francisco Human Rights Commission (HRC) and the HRC's Gay and Lesbian Advisory Committee (GLAC). The HRC was created in 1964 as an advisory agency under the jurisdiction of the mayor and the Board of Supervisors. Its role was to investigate and report on complaints of discrimination which grew to include race, religion, creed, gender, sexual orientation, HIV/AIDS, disability and inter-group tensions. The GLAC files make up more than half of this subseries. The files from the Commission and Committee are contained in one subseries because their work was so intertwined. In some cases where documents were obviously from one or the other this is noted in the folder list. For example, minutes are separated into two separate runs.

Lyon was appointed to the HRC by Mayor George Moscone in 1976, serving as Chair from 1982 to 1983, and resigning from the Commission in 1987. She served as Chair of GLAC for all but 1982 and 1983. GLAC was formed in May of 1975 by the Board of Supervisors. It became one of many HRC standing committees. After an initial project of three public hearings in 1976, offering lesbian and gay citizens an opportunity to testify on their problems and needs, the Committee concerned itself with the identification of and finding solutions for problems associated with the gay and lesbian community.

Arrangement note

The HRC/GLAC subseries is divided into two sub-subseries: i. Administrative Files and ii. Programming Files. One additional folder of printed materials is found at the end of the Programming Files sub-subseries.

Administrative Files, i: 1972-1991

Physical Description: 3.0 boxes and 10 folders

Scope and Contents note

This sub-subseries includes correspondence, minutes, press related materials, and reports. The Correspondence for both the commission and the committee are interfiled but the minutes are divided into HRC or GLAC. These and other documents illustrate the large number of complaints into anti-gay violence and AIDS discrimination that were investigated by the HRC, as well as their lobbying efforts at the local level to correct these conditions.

Programming Files, ii: 1972-1991Physical Description: 4.0 boxes and 3 foldersScope and Contents note

This sub-subseries focuses almost exclusively on lesbian and gay issues. The files range from a substantial quantity of materials on various forms of discrimination, a Federal Communications Commission Case that Lyon was a participant in, various legislative measures, police issues, to violence against lesbians and gays. Materials contained in the files include correspondence, flyers, hearing transcripts, legal documents, memos, and minutes among other documents. These files offer an excellent opportunity to understand issues of importance to the gay and lesbian community of San Francisco from the mid 1970s through the 1980s. A significant portion of this sub-subseries documents in detail the GLAC's response to the AIDS crisis. There are letters, handwritten notes and memos about the bathhouse closings, hiring an AIDS discrimination specialist within the HRC, along with the annual report on the number of AIDS discrimination complaints. Other files concern a variety of subjects addressed by the GLAC and HRC.

Arrangement note

The files are arranged alphabetically by subject.
