Biography / Administrative History

Charlene Spretnak (1946- ) was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and raised in Columbus, Ohio. Spretnak earned her B.A. at St. Louis University, and an M.A. in English and American Literature from the University of California, Berkeley (1981). Beginning her pioneering work in the 1970s, Spretnak is known for her theorizing, scholarship, and activism in the areas of feminism (including women's spirituality), ecological thought (including Green politics), cultural history (including the history of modern art), social criticism, and dynamic interrelatedness.

She is author of two works on the women's spirituality movement: Lost Goddesses of Early Greece (1978) and The Politics of Women's Spirituality (editor, 1982). Later books include: coauthor with Fritjof Capra, Green Politics: The Global Promise (1984); author of The Spiritual Dimension of Green Politics (1986); States of Grace: The Recovery of Meaning in the Postmodern Age (1991); The Resurgence of the Real: Body, Nature, and Place in a Hypermodern World (1997); Missing

Mary: The Queen of Heaven and Her Re-Emergence in the Modern Church (2004); and Relational Reality: New Discoveries of Interrelatedness That Are Transforming the Modern World (2011). This collection is based on her research for her 2014 book The Spiritual Dynamic in Modern Art: Art History Reconsidered, 1800 to the Present .

She is Professor Emerita in the Philosophy and Religion Department at the California Institute of Integral Studies, San Francisco, California, and a research fellow at The Green Institute, a center for research and policy of the Green Movement, which she helped found in August 1984. She was inducted in 1989 into the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame in recognition of her writings on spirituality and social justice. In 2006, she was named by the British government's Environment Department as one of the "100 Eco-Heroes of All Time."

Scope and Content of Collection

The collection consists of working files, clippings, articles, interviews, exhibition catalogs and artist's monographs used to write the book, The Spiritual Dynamic in Modern Art .

Arrangement

The original order created by Charlene Spretnak was maintained. The order is a combination of chronological and alphabetical. Prominent historical modern artists are in the front of a series; contemporary artists are then listed alphabetically. Series: 1, Modern Artists Engaged with the Abrahamic Traditions (predominately Christianity); 2, Modern Artists Engaged with Esoteric Spirituality (1885-1920); 3, Modern Artists Engaged with Allusive Spirituality (subtle, abstract art; often Buddhist-inflected); 4, Modern Artists Engaged with the Spirituality of Immanence (body and nature as sacred); 5, Photographers and Videographers Engaged with Spirituality; 6, Modern Architects Engaged with Spirituality; 7, Art Historians on spirituality in Modern Art; and 8, Videos (VHS).
