Biographical Note

Vladimir Nikolaevich Bashkirov, a Russian-American businessman, was born in Samara, Russia. He started his career as a grain broker and developed into a successful industrialist. He was appointed Deputy Minister of the Provisional Government of the Russian Republic formed immediately following the abdication of Tsar Nicholas II. There he focused on the Imperial Russian government's efforts to procure much-needed military supplies in the American market before and after America's entry into World War I. After the collapse of Russia's Imperial and Provisional governments in 1917, Bashkirov went into exile in the United States and lived in New York. Bashkirov worked in the Division of Supplies of the Russian Embassy, where he coordinated and supervised purchases. Bashkirov was also a philanthropist, donating to the Tolstoy Foundation, the Literary Fund, and other Russian organizations.

Scope and Content of Collection

The collection consists of correspondence, reports, and financial records relating to Russian-American trade and to Russian procurement of supplies in the United States during World War I and the Russian Civil War. The bulk of the materials were gathered by Vladimir Nikolaevich Bashkirov during his time as a Deputy Minister of the Provisional Government of Russia and later in the Division of Supplies of the Russian Embassy in New York. Includes a substantial amount of correspondence with Boris Bakhmeteff (Bakhmet'ev), who was the only ambassador of the Russian Provisional Government to the United States.
