Title: Stanley B. Lubman papers
Date (inclusive): 1965-2018
Collection Number: 2019C69
Contributing Institution: Hoover Institution Archives
Language of Material: English
Physical Description: 6 manuscript boxes (3.0 linear feet)
Abstract: Writings, correspondence and printed matter, relating to law reform in China.
Physical Location: Hoover Institution Archives
Creator: Lubman, Stanley B., 1934-
Access
The collection is open for research; materials must be requested at least two business days in advance of intended use.
Publication Rights
For copyright status, please contact the Hoover Institution Archives.
Preferred Citation
[Identification of item], Stanley B. Lubman Papers, [Box no., Folder no. or title], Hoover Institution Archives
Acquisition Information
Materials were acquired by the Hoover Institution Archives in 2019.
Accruals
Materials may have been added to the collection since this finding aid was prepared. To determine if this has occurred, find the collection in Stanford University's online catalog at http://searchworks.stanford.edu/. Materials have been added to the collection if the number of boxes listed in the catalog is larger than the number of boxes listed in this finding aid.
Biographical Note
Born on March 29, 1934, in New York City. Senior Fellow, The Honorable G. William and Ariadna Miller Institute for Global Challenges and the Law; Distinguished Lecturer in Residence (retired), University of California, Berkeley School of Law. Professor Lubman has specialized on China as a scholar and as a practicing lawyer for more than 40 years. His first tenure at the University of California, Berkeley, was from 1967 to 1974; a visiting professor of law from 1967 to 1968, an acting associate professor from 1968 to 1972, and a lecturer from 1972 to 1974. He returned to the University in 2002. Lubman has also lectured at Oxford, Stanford, Columbia, Harvard, the University of Heidelberg, and the School of Oriental and African Studies of the University of London. While at Columbia Law School, he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar.

Prior to devoting his time to research and teaching, Lubman was a consultant (1996-1997) and head (1993-1996) of the China Group at Allen & Overy; partner with Thelen, Marrin, Johnson & Bridges (1987-1993); partner (1979-1987) and special counsel (1977-78) with Heller, Ehrman, White & McAuliffe; and in individual practice in Washington, DC (1974-76) and Berkeley (1972-74). From 1963 to 1967, he trained as a China specialist in the United States and in Hong Kong under grants from the Rockefeller Foundation, Columbia University, and the Foreign Area Fellowship Program. He also served as the first clerk (1961-1962) to Judge Wilfred Feinberg '43 of the US District Court for the Southern District of New York; was an associate with Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison (1960-1961); and did postgraduate work at the University of Paris (1959-1960).

Lubman is currently an advisor on law reform and other law-related projects in China for The Asia Foundation. He is chair of the U.S. Administrative Law Advisory Group, and a member of the Panel of Arbitrators of CIETAC, the Hong Kong Arbitration Centre, and the American Arbitration Association (California). He is the author of China's Legal Reforms, Bird in a Cage: Legal Reform in China after Mao, and Engaging the Law in China: State, Society and Possibilities for Justice.

Scope and Content of Collection
The Stanley B. Lubman papers contain personal writings, manuscripts, interviews transcripts, and reports related to People's Republic of China's legal situations, social credit system, US-China relations, and contemporary issues affecting China's foreign and domestic policies.

The papers include materials related to delegations to China (includes reports on 1st American Bar Association delegation), Beijing, early trips to China after 1971 (accounts of academics and others), Sino-Western negotiations (reports and discussions, including discussions of China-Watching), material on the legal profession in China, China Law Blog, the social credit system, the Belt and Road Initiative, and Hong Kong interviews (1965-1967).

Subjects and Indexing Terms
Law reform--China.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Box</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Scope and Contents note</th>
<th>Notes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Printed matter, correspondence, office files 1980-2018</td>
<td>Includes material related to Sino-Western negotiations, social credit, and Belt and road initiative</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>Printed matter, correspondence, office files 1980s-2014</td>
<td>Includes material related to Sino-Western negotiations and the China law blog</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Printed matter, correspondence, office files 2000s-2018</td>
<td>Includes material related to negotiations - China Watching and early visits to China</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>Printed matter, correspondence, office files 1976-2003</td>
<td>Includes material related to Beijing, [American Bar Association] delegations, negotiations, and foreign articles</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>Office files, printed matter 1985-2004</td>
<td>Includes material related to negotiations</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>Office files, printed matter 1985-2004</td>
<td>Includes material related to negotiations, general and cross-cultural</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>