Biographical/Historical Note
The Allied powers who defeated Nazi Germany in World War II divided the country into four occupation zones for administrative purposes during the period 1945-1949. The American zone consisted of Bavaria and Hessen in Southern Germany, and the northern portions of the present-day German state of Baden-Württemberg.

Scope and Content of Collection

The records of the American administration of occupied Germany (U.S. Zone) at Kreis Traunstein relate to the civil administration of the region. The record document problems related to public health and safety, the administration of justice, allocation of economic resources, organization of labor, denazification, and the disposition of displaced persons. The records consist of memoranda, reports, correspondence, and office files. The collection also contains annual administrative reports on civilian relief efforts for other districts in Bavaria and miscellaneous materials of the Ukrainian Committee in Regensburg.

Arrangement

Records are arranged as originally received from the organization; generally by Office of Military Government (U.S. Zone)
