Scope and Content of Collection
The collection documents the activities of noted American agronomist and chief administrative officer of the U.S. Department of Agriculture William John Green. The papers consist of correspondence, speeches, reports, memoranda, minutes, newsletters, and printed matter relating to U.S. Farm Security Administration aid to tenant farmers, and to agricultural assistance to Guam, China, Peru, Burma, Bolivia, and Taiwan.

The papers include 35 years of "Hunger Fighters," published at irregular intervals in various parts of the world to keep former members of the Agricultural Rehabilitation Division of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA) in touch with each other. In each series there are also "Bill's Letters," memoirs written as diaries about Green's experience and career in agriculture.
