CHINESE INDUSTRIAL COOPERATIVES, 1936-1950, 1958

Scope and Contents
Correspondence, writings, speeches, records, and printed matter related to the establishment and development of the Chinese Industrial Cooperative (C.I.C. or INDUSCO) movement during the 1930s and 1940s and especially to the participation of Nym Wales (Helen Foster Snow), Edgar Snow, ReuI Alley, and Ida Pruitt. Part of this material forms the basis for Wales' China Builds for Democracy, published in 1941. A guide to the material, prepared by Nym Wales, appears at the beginning of the series.

CHINESE COMMUNISTS, 1936-1945, 1961

Writings, 1937-1939

Scope and Contents note
Correspondence, writings, interviews, articles, and news clippings by and about Chinese communists. Most of the material was written and collected by Nym Wales during her stay with Chinese communist leaders in Yenan in 1937. Part of the material found in this series was used to write Wales' Inside Red China, The Chinese Communists: Sketches and Autobiographies of the Old Guard, a reprint of Red Dust, and Women in Modern China. A guide to the material, prepared by Nym Wales, appears at the beginning of the series.
