Location of Originals
Originals in: Museum of Russian Culture, San Francisco.
Administrative History
Russian-American rod and gun club.
Scope and Content Note
This collection consists of the records of the Russian Rod and Gun Club, a non-profit organization, whose primary purpose was to unite those who are interested in fishing, hunting and related sports and to promote said sports by sponsoring contests and competitions. The collection also includes photographs, 31 prints and 8 negatives, primarily of the club's members and social activities dating from 1943-1978. These materials were not microfilmed and are only available at the Museum of Russian Culture.
Detailed processing and preservation microfilming for these materials were made possible by a generous grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and by matching funds from the Hoover Institution and Museum of Russian Culture. The grant also provides depositing a microfilm copy in the Hoover Institution Archives. The original materials remain in the Museum of Russian Culture, San Francisco as its property. A transfer table indicating corresponding box and reel numbers is available at the Hoover Institution Archives.
The Hoover Institution assumes all responsibility for notifying users that they must comply with the copyright law of the United States (Title 17 United States Code) and Hoover Rules for the Use and Reproduction of Archival Materials.
