Access

Open to qualified researchers by prior application through the Reader Services Department. For more information, contact Reader Services.

Publication Rights

The Huntington Library does not require that researchers request permission to quote from or publish images of this material, nor does it charge fees for such activities. The responsibility for identifying the copyright holder, if there is one, and obtaining permission rests with the researcher.

Preferred Citation

[Identification of item]. Los Angeles County Land Use Maps on Slides. The Huntington Library, San Marino, California.

Provenance

Gift of George Marr in February 1990.

Historical Note

The Los Angeles County Regional Planning Commission was formed in 1922 to advise the Board of Supervisors on all planning issues.

Scope and Content

This collection contains 2 x 2 in. color slides of various land-use maps dating from the late 1920s to the 1960s for areas in Los Angeles County, California, that were created and used by the Los Angeles Regional Planning Commission. The slides depict paper maps that were photographed by the Commission in segments (identified as "detail" slides), and as a whole (identified as an "index" slide). The maps are colored to reflect different classifications of land uses such as open land, farming, residence, commerce, industry, utility, institution, and recreation.

Alternative Form of Materials Available

Arrangement

The envelopes are arranged alphabetically according to the name of geographic region listed on the envelope. Because the alphabetizing reflects the name as it is written on the envelope some locations may be organized according to a geographic direction (such as East Pasadena under "E" or North Claremont under "N").
