Biography
Guy Stevens Callender (1865-1915) completed his Ph.D. in political science at Harvard 1907. During the period 1895-1903, he was an instructor at Wellesley, Harvard, and Bowdoin College.
A leading authority in the field of economic history, Mr. Callender occupied the Chair of Political Economy at the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale from 1903 until his death in 1915.

Scope and Content
These papers consist entirely of typewritten notes made from Guy Stevens Callender's original ones on the general topic - the Economic History of the United States since the Civil War.
According to Max Ferrand, the notes were too incomplete for publication. However, it was thought desirable to have them made available to students at Yale. The original typed copy of these notes is deposited at Yale.
