Preferred Citation

Provenance
Part I of the collection was acquired from Elizabeth Jane Howard in August, 1995 (acquisition number 1747).
Part II was acquired from Ms. Howard in February, 2001 (acquisition number 2087).
Part III was acquired from Ms. Howard in July, 2010 (acquisition number 2669).
Part IV was acquired through Bertram Rota Booksellers from Jonathan Clowes Ltd., Ms. Howard's Literary Executor, June 11, 2014-June 2018 (acquisition numbers 3019, CSmH_2014_073 and CSmH_2018_153).

Processing/Project Information
This collection was cataloged by Gayle M. Richardson, August 12, 1999 – August 6, 2018.

Cataloging Decisions
1. Elizabeth Jane Howard's handwriting appears on manuscripts and letters throughout the collection, so it was decided not to index each instance separately.
2. Items dealing with the Second World War have been subject indexed only when substantive.
3. Nicknames occur frequently in the correspondence; the letters are cataloged and indexed using the full, authorized name and the nickname is noted on the front of the folder.
4. There are references to Elizabeth Jane Howard throughout the collection; only substantive references and author/title references for her works have been subject indexed.
5. The Elizabeth Jane Howard Papers were cataloged over a span of 17 years and multiple acquisitions, resulting in a collection organized by accretion, with each new acquisition added on in sequence at the end of the collection, rather than interspersed with similar or related materials. Therefore, each separate acquisition must be searched in order to locate all of the relevant manuscripts or correspondence by a particular author.
6. Because the collection was cataloged over a span of 17 years, the names and dates of various people in the collection have changed, usually in order to conform to changing standards in national cataloging practices. For example: Elizabeth, Countess Russell, became Elizabeth von Arnim. In other instances, an individual remarried or died. It was not practical for us to retroactively update the previously cataloged names on the folders on in the Finding Aid, so researchers will find different forms of names used for the same individuals in discrete sections of the collection.

Notable people in the collection include, among others: Robert Ackman, Kingsley Amis, Martin Amis, Jill Balcon, John Betjeman, Cyril Connolly, Cecil Day Lewis, Daniel Day-Lewis, Louis De Bernières, Robert Fitzroy Foster, Selina Hastings, Laurie Lee, Robert Newton Linscott, Hilary Mantel, John Julius Norwich, Peter Scott, Stephen Spender, Elizabeth Taylor (novelist), and Leonard Woolf.

Scope and Content Note -- Part I
The papers in Part I consist of the following series:

1. Manuscripts (Boxes 1-21), are arranged alphabetically by author and title. The manuscripts cover a wide span of Elizabeth Jane Howard's literary career, with examples of some of her earliest writing and of articles written as recently as the early 1990s. In some cases there are both manuscript and typewritten versions, as well as initial notes, for a play or novel, which enables a researcher to trace the creative process of writing a work through several stages. Included in this series are: articles, essays, interviews, short stories, plays, book reviews, and novels (in both manuscript and typewritten versions) written by Elizabeth Jane Howard. The series also includes manuscripts by other authors, most notably, Kingsley Amis and Cecil Day Lewis.

2. Correspondence (Boxes 22-57), are arranged alphabetically by author. This series includes personal letters and letters related to Elizabeth Jane Howard's writing. Many of the personal letters were written during the Second World War and discuss life in England during the war. A large number of business letters pertain to the Cheltenham Literary Festival and details relating to the running of the Festival; notable authors in this group of letters are Kingsley Amis, Robert Frost, Agatha Christie, Cecil Day Lewis, John Betjeman, Laurie Lee, Rosamond Lehmann, Iris Murdoch, J.B. Priestley, Siegfried Sassoon, Stephen Spender, Angus Wilson, and Leonard Woolf. Another group of letters are replies to an appeal by Elizabeth Jane Howard to notable British artists, for financial support for Cecil Day Lewis, during his final illness. These letters are subject indexed under the C.D.L. Fund. There is also a large group of letters that were written in response to an article which Elizabeth Jane Howard wrote upon the death of Cecil Day Lewis in 1972, including one letter written by Rosamond Lehmann (EJH 1203), who is highly critical of the article and Elizabeth Jane Howard's memories of the past and Cecil Day Lewis.

3. Oversize Manuscripts and Correspondence (Boxes 58-60), are arranged alphabetically by author. These items were removed from boxes 1-57 so the call numbers are not consecutive. Place holder cards were left in Boxes 1-57 to indicate when an item was removed to an oversize box.

4. Ephemera (Boxes 61-63, Extra Oversize Boxes 64-65), are arranged alphabetically by author and title. The ephemera consists mainly of printed copies of newspaper and magazine articles written by Elizabeth Jane Howard or written about her life and work. There are also several publications dealing with the fortieth anniversary of the Second World War. The Extra Oversize ephemera consists mainly of printed first proofs for articles and book reviews by Elizabeth Jane Howard, many with autograph corrections.

Scope and Content Note -- Material Previously Restricted

2. Oversize Manuscripts and Correspondence (Box 74), arranged alphabetically by author and title; these items were removed from boxes 66-73.

Scope and Content Note -- Part II
The papers in Part II consist of the following series:

1. Manuscripts (Boxes 75-83), are arranged alphabetically by author and title. The manuscripts include typescripts for the third and fourth books of the Cazalet Chronicle, Confusion (1993) and Casting Off (1995), as well as the typescript for Ms. Howard's novel, Falling (1999); also included in this series are research notes for all three novels.

2. Correspondence (Boxes 84-94), are arranged alphabetically by author. This series includes personal letters, as well as business letters. A significant number of letters, written in May/June 2000, are congratulating Howard upon being awarded the Commander Order of the British Empire (C.B.E.).
There are several interesting letters pertaining to Elizabeth Jane Howard's writing in this series. In a letter from Howard to Robert Aickman (EJH 2762), she critiques his writing as well as her own; pointing out they both share and suffer from "a disinclination to attach ourselves to contemporary life" in their writing. There is also a letter from the British writer, Hilary Mantel, to Elizabeth Jane Howard (EJH 2871), describing, in detail, what is good about Howard's writing and why its "luminous quality" has "haunted" her own writing. A third letter, from the actor Paul Scofield to Howard (EJH 2988), explains why he is turning down her offer to play the character of "the Brig" in the television adaptation of the Cazalet Chronicle even though he admires the books and her writing.

3. Ephemera (Box 94), is arranged alphabetically by author and title. The ephemera consists mainly of printed copies of newspaper and magazine articles about Elizabeth Jane Howard, Kingsley Amis, and Howard's novels. There is also an interesting printed biographical booklet (ca. 1972) which includes photographs of Howard, her family, and Amis, published for publicity purposes at the time of Odd Girl Out (folder 54).

The majority of the personal letters were written from 1999 to 2009, and many contain congratulations upon the publication of Howard's memoir and the televising of The Cazalet Chronicle and Falling on British and American television. This series includes letters by Maeve Binchy, Louis De Bernières, Selina Hastings, Elspeth Huxley, Verity Lambert, Penelope Lively, Joanna Lumley, Hilary Mantel, John Julius Norwich, and Kristin Scott Thomas.
