Historical or Biographical Note
In 1903, the Fishermen's Union of the Pacific Coast and Alaska affiliated with the International Seamen's Union. In 1906, at the International Seamen's Union of America convention, the place of the Fishermen's Union of the Pacific Coast and Alaska was taken by the United Fishermen's Union of the Pacific which had been formed in April of that year by an amalgamation of the Fishermen's Protective Union and a unaffiliated local organization, the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective Union.
