Descriptive Summary

Title: California. Probate Court (Sacramento County) records

Dates: 1849-1976

Collection number: CNTY0006

Creator: California. Probate Court (Sacramento County)

Collection Size: 781 boxes + 162 volumes (645 linear feet)

Repository: Center for Sacramento History

Sacramento, California 95811-0229

Abstract: The General Law of 1851 established the Probate Court and transferred to it the jurisdiction formerly held by the County Court in probate matters. Cases involving issues of fact could be heard in Probate Court, but at the request of either party could also be heard in the District Court. Appeals of probate cases were to the District Court. In 1864 appeals to the Supreme Court were allowed. An 1868 law provided for jury trials in Probate Court. The California State Constitution of 1879 transferred probate jurisdiction to the newly created Superior Court.

Languages: Languages represented in the collection: English
