Acquisition Information

Transferred from the California State Archives in 1980 (accession #1980/132).

Biography / Administrative History

Courts of First Instance were the local judicial bodies of pre-statehood California after U.S. annexation. They were overseen by an alcalde or judge and tried civil and criminal cases until the court was superseded by the District, County, and Sessions Courts established by state legislature on March 30, 1850.

Scope and Content of Collection

The collection contains records from the Sacramento Court of First Instance from 1848 to 1850, including civil and criminal case files, court record and judgment books, Alcalde Court documents, and court correspondence and petitions, plus documents from the Natoma, Mormon Island, and Salmon Falls districts. Some records of note are case files relating to the Rising Sun Mining & Trading Company and the Eagle Theater bankruptcy trial, and 1848 to 1849 documents in Spanish related to Dry Creek (Arroyo Seco).

Arrangement

The collection is arranged into 3 series:

Series 1. Civil case files, 1849-1853

Series 2. Criminal case files, 1849-1850

Series 3. Other court records, 1848-1850

Series 3. Other court records 1848-1850

Series Scope and Content Summary

This series contains various court records, including judgment books, Alcalde Court documents, indexes, ledgers, and court correspondence and petitions, plus documents from the Natoma, Mormon Island, and Salmon Falls districts, and documents in Spanish from 1848 to 1849 that are related to Dry Creek (Arroyo Seco).

Arrangement

This series is arranged alphabetically.

Box 1, Folder 1

Alcalde Court documents 1850

General

Documents in this folder are from the Natoma District, Mormon Island, and Salmon Falls.

Box 1, Folder 2

Civil, bonds, criminal book 1849-1850

General

This book is labeled "Civil, Bonds, Criminal" and includes records related to civil cases, criminal cases, county officers' personal bonds, and meetings of the County Grand Jury. Civil cases are in the front unnumbered section of the volume and record litigants' names, court dates, and documents filed or actions taken. Personal bonds follow on pages 1-21 and 32-49. They are made to the State and include name of bondee, names of sureties, date, office held, amount, and date of election. Criminal cases begin at the back of the volume on pages numbered 1-10, 15-23, 25-35, and 43-71. Most cases list defendant, charge, judge, date, and transcript of proceedings. Bracketed annotations (i.e., [Crim. 1]) are cross references to case files. Page 25 lists people appointed as court clerks. Pages 37-40 of criminal record are records of sessions of the grand jury dated Jan. 1, 1850, (first meeting); Jan. 5, 1850, (second meeting); and Jan. 24, 1850. Each transcript records presiding judge, names of jurors, and warrants returned. All sections are roughly chronological.

Box 2, Folder 5

Court correspondence, petitions, and other records 1848-1850

General

Included are letters to the sheriff asking for jurors, records of the selling of a ship and a horse, receipts, notes, and an 1849 letter to a judge from a deputy saying that he is unable to serve papers due to high floodwaters.

Box 2, Folder 7

Dry Creek/Arroyo Seco and Sepulveda documents 1848-1849

General

These documents are related to a man named Sepulveda and Dry Creek/Arroyo Seco. Many documents are written in Spanish.

Box 3, Folder 1

Indexes to litigants and fees 1849-1850

General

Two volumes. One volume lists names of litigants or subject (individual) of probate and page number of corresponding volume. The other volume is an index to fees and also lists names of litigants or subjects of probate and page number of the corresponding volume. CSH does not have either corresponding volume.

Box 3, Folder 2

Judgment book 1849-1850

General

Records include transcripts of activities and fees transacted by the Court of First Instance. Information recorded includes names of litigants, reason for litigation, hearing dates, decisions, and fees. Arranged chronologically by date of initial hearing. Bracketed remarks (i.e., [Civil]) are case file numbers cross-referencing case files.

Box 3, Folder 3

Record book 1849

General

Records include transcripts of activities and fees transacted by the Court of First Instance. Information recorded includes names of litigants, reason for litigation, hearing dates, decisions, and fees. Arranged chronologically by date of initial hearing, from November 22, 1849 to April 9, 1850. Bracketed remarks (i.e., [Civil]) are case file numbers cross-referencing case files.
