Introduction
Bernard J. Reid was born April 24, 1823 in Youngstown, Pennsylvania. He was the son of Meredith Reid and Eleanor Hanlon, Irish immigrants to this country. At the age of seventeen, B.J. Reid became the teacher of the district school at Pleasant Unity, Pennsylvania. When he was nineteen, he moved to Clarion, Pennsylvania where he taught school and did surveying. The following year, he and his brother founded and published The Iron County Democrat, which later became The Clarion Democrat.

In July, 1846, Reid traveled to St. Louis where he became Examiner of Surveys in the office of the U.S. Surveyor General. In 1849, Reid participated in the great migration to gold rush California. Upon his arrival in California, after a difficult overland journey with the Pioneer Line, Reid worked as a miner near Weber's Creek. Leaving the mines, he went to San Francisco where he worked as a surveyor and typesetter. In San Francisco, in late 1850, Reid met Mr. Hawxhurst "My old friend and partner" who had just purchased property in Santa Clara Valley and who offered to take Reid in as a "partner in farming and trading" (letter of Reid to Hermana Mia- his sister Mary- 3/12/51).

In 1851, Reid came to the newly established Santa Clara College where he became one of the school's first lay professors. He worked closely with Fr. Nobili and other faculty to help get the school established. He taught English and mathematics there until 1852.

In 1852, Reid returned to Clarion by way of the Isthmus of Panama. In Clarion, he completed his legal studies and was admitted to the bar on December 3, 1853.

In 1854, Reid married Letitia Farran, daughter of John and Letitia Farran. Together, they had nine children and enjoyed fifty-eight years of married life.

Their children included Anna Josephine, who married and died as a result of complications in the birth of her first child; Ambrose, whose life is detailed below; Mary Agnes who became a nun at St. Joseph's convent of Mercy taking the name Sr. Mary Agnes; Charles Vincent who became a businessman; John James who died at the age of two; George M. Joseph who joined the priesthood; Letitia Eleanor who became a nun at St. Mary's Convent taking the name of Sr. Mary Alphonso; Norbert Stanislaus who also became a businessman; and Genevieve Elizabeth who died at age twenty-six from a heart ailment.

During the Civil War, Reid served as Captain of Company F, 63rd Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. Following the war, he resumed an active legal practice in Clarion.

Reid died on November 15, 1904 in Pittsburgh as a result of an attack of pneumonia.

The Bernard J. Reid Collection also contains the papers of Ambrose Reid, B.J. Reid's oldest son. Ambrose Reid was born on February 3, 1857 in Clarion. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame and then began to study law under his father in 1875. In 1878, Ambrose was admitted to the bar and became a member of his father's firm.

In 1890, Ambrose moved to Pittsburgh where he became a legal partner with A.V.D. Watterson. In 1911, he ran for and won the office of judge of the court of common pleas of Allegheny County. He served in this office for the remainder of his life.

In 1896, Ambrose married Lucille Hopkins, daughter of Dr. Abram and Katherine Hopkins. With Lucy, he raised two sons, Meredith and Albert.

In December 1933, Ambrose had the honor of becoming the fifth president judge of Allegheny County.

Like his father, Ambrose took an active interest in the community and was a member of several religious and civic groups. Ambrose died in 1941 as a result of a long term illness.

The Bernard J. Reid Collection is the result of the gift of Alfred D. Reid, great-grandson of Bernard J. Reid, to the University of Santa Clara Archives over the period 1978-1980. (SCU Accession #78-01)

The Bernard J. Reid Collection is numbered as follows:

- Body of the collection- PP-Reid
- Oversized Materials- PP-Reid/Ricard; Map Drawers
- Photographs- 24,969 and following
- Full-size Newspapers- Map Drawer

Deborah Ann Whipple
Gigia Louise Bjorn
28 May 1981

Additional B.J. Reid materials were presented to the SCU Archives in 1983 (SCU Accession # 983-078). These include the original 1849 Diary, Reid's lecture on California, Joseph Ware's Map of the Route to California, and the Pioneer Line Passenger List. See addenda to the Collection, p. 65-67.

Alfred Reid Collection

| Box 4IR1-12 | Diary of 1849. |

Scope and Content Note

Bound vol. Approximately 5.75"x3.5," spine and boards missing, but pages intact and legible. Approx. 70 pp. Handwritten account of Reid's overland journey from St. Louis to San Francisco, May 22- Sept. 30. A factual account of landmarks, scenery & day-to-day happenings on the wagon trip. Prefaced by an 1844 2-week diary & interspersed with fragmentary pages of notes, money accounts and sentimental verse.
Box Box 1

Diary of 1846.

Scope and Content Note
Day-to-day happenings for the 23-year old Reid, mostly weather and small talk of the day. 3.5" x 2.25", Desilver's Pocket Diary, 3 days to a page, about 7 lines per day. Of some biographical interest.

Bernard J. Reid's Lecture on California.

Scope and Content Note
44 numbered pages, ruled memo sheets, self wrappers. Apparently his script for a frequently presented program in which he describes life in San Francisco in 1849 and his experiences. With many changes & some deletions.

2 letters, Wm. M. Portra to B.J. Reid.

Scope and Content Note
35-line handwritten letter to Reid concerning the disastrous Pittsburgh fire of April 14, 1845 and reporting destruction of property. Second letter gives a detailed account of the destruction and reports 150 contracts have been let for rebuilding.

Pioneer (Line) Passenger List.

Scope and Content Note
Lettersheet, 9.75"x7.75," folded into 3 vertical sections with 6-10 manuscript names in each of 19 parties (wagons? Tents?), omitting no. 12, with Capt. B.J. Reid at top of no. 14 list, plus a few later notes like "still living" or "died." Some pencilled names inked over. Over 100 names, mostly with initials.

Single memo sheet.

Scope and Content Note
closely written on both sides, blue paper 7.75" x 4.25". Reid's memorandum record of an exhibit of plants and flowers from northern California, including Sonoma & Vallejo. Such items as "Single bunches of grapes from the garden of Gen. Vallejo of Sonoma, weighing 10 lbs."

Single memo sheet.

Scope and Content Note
10"x14", folded into 8 columns, detailing supplies, incl. Rifles & drugs for St. Louis to California wagon trip of 1849. List includes a copy of Bryant's "California."

James V. Reid memo book.

Scope and Content Note
Meticulous ink script copying favorite passages from literature & history. About 75 pp., of no intrinsic value, other than part of the family archives.

Manuscript oration for Columbus Day Banquet.

Scope and Content Note
33 pp., on sheets 6.5"x5.75" from Judges' Chambers, Pittsburgh. A patriotic address, covering the whole gamut of western history and culture, including mention of Father Serra and the Jesuits in California.

Box Box 2

17 Daily Miniature Diaries.

Scope and Content Note
Mostly 3.75" x 2.5," a few larger. All about two-thirds blank, 1884 used partly to rewrite 1849. Fragile condition. 1861-1885.
Goldsmith’s Grammar of General Geography.
Scope and Content Note
A printed book, circa 1825.

Richard Burton, pseudonym. Historical Remarques of London.
Scope and Content Note
Woodcuts, coats of arms, very poor copy. Apparently written by Nathaniel Crouch. 1684.

7 Journals.
Scope and Content Note
Mostly small memo books with random entries or recollections. A.B. Reid’s Dictionary of legal terms, 1897, others are 20th century including expense book, address book, and a 1935 National Diary with extensive trivial entries by A.B. Reid.
