Scope and Contents
The Carmen Sandoval Fernandez Poster Collection consists of 62 Chicano Movement-related posters, broadsides, and advertisements. These one-of-a-kind posters and broadsides document local events and organizations, as well as local and national groups involved in the Chicano Movement in San Diego, including the Chicano Federation of San Diego County, Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlán, and the Committee on Chicano Rights, Inc.
The collection dates from the early 1970s through the 1980s. Major topical themes of the posters include education, celebrations and special events, heritage and pride, conferences, demonstrations and protests, art, the Chicana movement, organizations, propaganda and slogans, fundraisers, and theater and performing arts.
Thanks to the support of the Chicana/o Archives Advisory Board and several generous donations, this collection is available online and can be found here: http://library.sdsu.edu/exhibits/2009/11/csf_posters/index.shtml
