Biography of Willie L. Brown, Jr.
Willie Lewis Brown, Jr. was born in 1934 in Mineola, Texas. Raised by his grandmother, Brown graduated high school in 1951, moving to San Francisco where he attended San Francisco State University, receiving a liberal studies B.A. in 1955. He studied law at University of California Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco, and became a lawyer in 1959. Brown established his own law practice shortly thereafter. In 1964, Brown was elected to the California State Assembly, beginning his thirty-year career in the Assembly (1965-1995). In 1980, Brown became Speaker of the Assembly, a post he held until 1995. Brown was elected Mayor of San Francisco in 1995, a position he held until 2003.

Scope and Contents
The Willie L. Brown, Jr. Papers include Assembly Bill materials, correspondence, newspaper clippings, research files, awards, books, editorial cartoons, and photographs created during his years in the California State Assembly (1965-1995).

Series 1: Assembly Bill Materials, 1965-1996, includes documents pertaining to legislative bills Brown introduced or co-sponsored in the California State Assembly. Also includes materials relating to House Resolutions, Assembly Constitutional Amendments, Assembly Concurrent Resolutions, and Assembly Joint Resolutions. Assembly Bill files minimally contain government published copies of the Assembly Bills, along with amended versions, and the Legislative Council Digest related to the bill. Files may also contain committee analyses of the bills, correspondence from government officials, constituent individuals and organizations, and newspaper or magazine articles, newsletters and brochures. Brown's legislative files reflect his early efforts to support health benefits for people with AIDS, support for dentists trained in foreign schools, and civil rights issues.

Series 2: Subject Files, 1965-1995, consists of documents on a variety of topics collected by Brown's legislative staff for research purposes.

Series 3: Political Appointments, 1981-1997, spans the years that Brown served as Speaker of the Assembly. Includes documentation of Brown's political appointments to California commissions, boards, and committees. Files include a description of each body, including its responsibilities, duties and membership; correspondence relating to potential appointees; and oath statements from appointed members.

Series 4: Correspondence, 1965-1994, includes endorsement letters from Brown in support of individuals and organizations; and letters to Brown seeking his support. There is also other correspondence throughout the collection in other series.

Series 5: Awards and Recognitions, 1972-1995, consists of paper certificates presented to Brown by various organizations for his achievements as a legislator. Related files include digital files of plaques presented to Brown. Special Collections and Archives has digital images of processed plaques and ephemera.

Series 6: Ephemera, 1962-1994, consists of newspaper clippings and memorabilia, such as printed programs from events.

Series 9: Photographs and Sound Recordings, 1966-1997, contains photographs, negatives, and slides that provide visual documentation of Brown's legislative career. The files include his early years, his family, assembly floor action, events hosted or attended by Brown including—his major fundraisers—and individuals he interacted with, including political figures, foreign dignitaries, athletes, celebrities, and friends. Also contains sound recordings of Brown and news programs. Formats include audio cassettes (bulk), open reel ¼-inch tape, and micro-cassettes.
