Abstract: The People's World Photograph Collection consists of approximately 6,000 photographs used in People's World, a grassroots publication affiliated with the Communist Party of the United States of America (CPUSA). The photographs, along with a small selection of cartoons and artwork, highlight social and political issues and events of the 20th century, with the views of the newspaper aligning with the CPUSA's policies on topics such as civil rights, labor, immigration, the peace movement, poverty, and unemployment. The photographs, the bulk of which span the years 1930 to 1990, comprise predominantly black and white prints gathered from a variety of sources including government agencies, photographic studios, individual photographers, stock image companies, and news agencies, while many of the cartoons and artwork were created by People's World editor and artist Pele deLappe.

Location: Collection is available onsite.
Language of Material: Languages represented in the collection: English.

Acquisition Information
The People's World Photograph Collection was originally donated by the staff of People's World on June 6, 1986. The images in Series 3, Arts and Entertainment, and Series 6, People's World Staff, were donated by Pele deLappe, and were collected in her capacity as features editor and cartoonist for People's World; a final addition, mainly containing negatives, was made through a purchase from Bolerium Books in 2011. The collection consists of the following six accessions: 1986/073, 1990/013, 1992/003, 1992/049, 1994/037, 2011/015.

Processing Information

Original order and subject heading titles have been maintained for Series 1, Subject Files. These came as two separate accessions and were integrated into the collection as follows: Subseries 1.1: Subjects 1918-1969 (accession 1986/073), and Subseries 1.2: Subjects 1920-1992 (accession 1992/049). As a result there is some overlap in terms of dates and subject headings.

Series 2, Individuals, combines photographs from accessions 1986/073 and 1992/049. The photographs comprise individual portraits as well as group shots and publicity stills. As many as possible of the individuals in the group photographs have been identified.

Arrangement
Arranged in 6 series: Series 1. Subjects, 1918-1992, is further arranged into two subseries: Subjects 1918-1969 and

Artwork, and Graphics, 1948-1983; Series 5, People's World Staff, 1940-1986; and Series 6, Negatives and Contact Prints, 1948-1990.

Original order has been maintained and the headings for the subject files are the original ones used by Peoples World staff.
Subseries 1.1 and Subseries 1.2 are arranged alphabetically by subject. Since the collection was accessioned over a period of years, there is some overlap in terms of dates and subject headings. The individuals in Series 2 are arranged alphabetically by last name. The remaining series are arranged as received.

Separated Materials
Newspaper clippings, ephemera, notes, transcribed interviews and speeches, and reference material was separated from the collection, and housed as People's World Research Files, larc.ms.0399.
