Scope and Contents
Recordings produced by the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade in 1964, containing lectures and panel discussions about politics, foreign policy, and anti-Communist activism. Many of the lectures are by CACC founder Fred Schwarz (1913-2009), who organized several five-day workshops (called "schools") around the country beginning in 1960. This collection is a complete set of what was referred to as "Washington D.C. School Tapes," purchased in October 1964 from the Crusade, then based in Houston, Texas. The tapes are marked 1-WDC-64 through 15-WDC-64.
