Title: Pacific Car Demurrage Records,
Identifier/Call Number: JL020
Contributing Institution: Department of Special Collections and University Archives
Language of Material: English
Physical Description: 11.5 Linear feet
Date (inclusive): 1901-1946
Scope and Content
The Records of the Pacific Car Demurrage Bureau contains only records associated with business transactions including: receipted vouchers, payrolls, register of vouchers, cashbooks, time books, journals, and ledgers. Most of these are pasted into ledger books, which are old (dates range 1901-1946) and, in some cases, in poor condition.

Historical Note
The Pacific Car Demurrage Bureau also called the Pacific Car Service Bureau seems to have been a sort of collection agency for the different west coast railroad companies. The P.C.D.B. would be responsible for collecting the fee that came due when a freight car was held beyond the reasonable time for loading or unloading of transported materials.
