Descriptive Summary

Title: Slavic Book Dealer Catalogs

Dates: circa 1900-2009

Collection number: M0471

Creator: Zalewski, Wojciech

Creator: Rondestvedt, Karen

Collection Size: 20 linear feet 86 manuscript boxes

Repository: Stanford University. Libraries. Dept. of Special Collections and University Archives.

Abstract: The collection features mostly printed and typewritten catalogs, price lists, press releases, and other materials (business correspondence, clippings, financial documents, newsletters, various publications, notes, misc.) related to the Slavic book trade in the Western world in the 20th - the beginning of the 21st centuries. Particularly beginning in late 1980s, the collection also includes catalogs and lists from dealers and other entities inside the Soviet Union, Russia, and Eastern and East-Central Europe seeking to sell material to Western libraries. The collection includes materials in almost all major Slavic languages (Russian, Polish, Ukrainian, Czech, etc.), as well as in English, French, German, and other Western and Central European languages.

Languages: Languages represented in the collection: English

Access
