Abstract: This collection is composed of scrapbooks from the Curran and Geary theaters in San Francisco. These professionally-assembled albums document over fifty years in the history of these theatres, covering a wide range of productions: plays, variety shows, comedy shows, magic shows, ballet, opera, revues, films, and other productions. The scrapbooks primarily contain newspaper clippings, along with press notices, advertisements, playbills, programs, menus, correspondence and photographs. The newspaper clippings include feature stories, interviews, advertisements, and critical reviews.

Scope and Contents

This collection consists of scrapbooks documenting the bookings by the Lurie Company into their Geary and Curran Theaters in San Francisco. There are also a small number of scrapbooks from other theatres in San Francisco and a few from the Majestic Theatre in Los Angeles. The scrapbooks primarily contain newspaper clippings with feature stories, critical reviews, interviews, advertisements, and press notices. Along with the clippings, there is also other promotional material such as playbills, programs, entertainment guides, flyers, press releases, menus, lists of radio plugs, scripts for radio plugs, photographs, racetrack programs, and correspondence. The scrapbooks were prepared as a record of bookings by the Lurie Company's press agents (Thomas Earnfeld, Richard Obee, and others) for the Curran and Geary Theaters. The bookings covered in the scrapbooks include plays, revues, comedy shows, magic shows, variety shows, concerts, opera, ballet, and movies. The scrapbooks also cover the San Francisco Civic Light Opera, which was closely associated with the Curran Theater, from the 1st Annual Season in 1938 to the 39th Annual Season in 1976.

The scrapbooks are arranged chronologically. The dates recorded for each production are the opening and closing dates of the production. For scrapbooks that have only one date, that is the opening date of the production. The scrapbooks cover one or more productions.

The bulk of the clippings in the scrapbooks are from the major San Francisco daily newspapers (including the San Francisco Bulletin, San Francisco Call, San Francisco Call & Post, San Francisco Chronicle, San Francisco Daily News, San Francisco Examiner, and the San Francisco Journal). There are also clippings from neighborhood newspapers, newspapers from nearby cities, and special interest newspapers. Although the clippings are primarily in English, there are a number of clippings in German, Chinese, Spanish, Italian, Hebrew, Russian, Japanese, Swedish, Serbian, and Danish.
