Biographical Note
Claude Stoller (born 1921) was a faculty member in the Department of Architecture at the University of California. His main passion centered on social issues such as inequities in housing, community concerns about redevelopment plans, and creating energy-efficient designs. Stoller first meet Fuller in 1955 when he helped bring Fuller to Washington University and the two men maintained their relationship over the years.
Scope and Contents
Stoller's collection on R. Buckminster Fuller contains correspondence with Fuller as well as Fuller’s with others; articles by and about R. Buckminster Fuller; material about specific projects; original sketches by Fuller; and diagrams and charts, among others. Plastic pieces to create a model are also part of this collection.
