Title: Stanford University postcard collection creator: Stanford University
source: Owens, Justine E., Dr.
Identifier/Call Number: PC0078
Physical Description: 4 Linear Feet
Date (inclusive): 1891-1990
Abstract: Collection depicts Stanford University buildings, grounds, and people; subjects include athletics and athletic facilities, student amusements, the cactus garden, old chemistry building, dormitories, fraternity and sorority houses, views of the Quad and Inner Quad, Lake Lagunita, libraries, Stanford mausoleum, Memorial Arch, Memorial Church, museum, the Palo Alto tree, university workers (primarily images of horse-drawn wagons), David Starr Jordan, Domenico Grosso ("the Stanford hermit"), and the presidential installation of John C. Branner. A number of items depict damage to buildings from the 1906 earthquake. There are also a few items depicting Palo Alto and surrounding communities.

Message: This is Saturday and just a week ago we started on our walking trip which we certainly enjoyed. My sister didn't come that other Sunday but is coming down to-morrow, so Bil and I shall conduct another sightseeing expedition around Stanford. We had a fine boat ride on the Lake yesterday--one of the girls who can row took us out. Will you be at home next Saturday and could I come to see you then? The week after is our vacation and Bil and I are going to the City. Hazel

<td>&quot;Hi! Left Lawsons at 12 &amp; arrived at 9 pm. No trouble, beautiful trip weather nice, not too [sic] hot. Ruths place is sure nice, Called Marguerite to make a date &amp; she has the mumps so that Trip is out. Going to Santa Cruz Sat. Saw Mary Whittaker. What a town, fraid I'd get lost if I were turned loose. Sure some beautiful homes here. Ruth has a lovely Magnolia tree in front yard. Lemon, Orang [sic], apple tree in back &amp; grape vines all over the back fence. Will see you next week. Love 'Marie.'&quot;</td>

Message: I was very sorry not to see you while I was in Los Angeles for I wanted to tell you much about the glories of Stanford. It is the best place ever -- better than I thought it could be. Of course I'd never try to convince you for I know "a man convinced against his will is of the same opinion still" but just tell you about it. Sincerely, Frances M Hoyt.

This is rushing season now and I am pretty busy. I hope to see you soon. You had better run down here in a machine. All of the fellows went crazy over Pete. We turn her loose in the day time, and she has broken about every thing in the house but we don't care for that. my address is DTD House, Stanford University, Cal.

- Message: Dearest Sis - Not one word have I heard from my sisters since leaving home. Esther had a letter from Henriette yesterday. she did not say how you were feeling. E and I went to the City Sat. to see the Blue Bird. I never saw anything more beautiful. glad to hear of Dorothy's success. The time is drawing near when I shall turn my face homeward. I wonder if I would ever be ready to go, feel as though I should like to stay on and on. The country is like a picture so green [illegible] I shall return Friday night. With much love.

Message: The "quad," as it is popularly called, is surrounded by twelve buildings and Memorial Church. It is an inner court some two hundred yards long and proportionally long wide. There are fourteen buildings in a square around the inner quad. All are joined by arcades. Then there are twelve buildings beside (some 40 in all). The most expensive are Memorial Church, Chemistry building, Encina Hall for boys, New Library, New Gymnasium, Museum; some of which are not yet finished. These six cost three of our million dollars. That is enough of itself to set up a small kindergarten isn't it? The other thirty-six buildings cost millions. Now if you wish to form big ideas of the wealth of the university - most of these buildings have been built of stone in the last ten years and only the interest on Stanford principal has been used. The principal remains untouched; only interest is used for all purpose whatsoever. Subjects and Indexing Terms Quad - Inner
