Biographical/Historical Sketch
David C. Weber, who joined the Stanford University Libraries in 1961, was director of the library from 1969 to 1990.

Description of the Collection
The first series "Papers" contains correspondence, manuscripts, and articles for the October 1969 issue of LIBRARY TRENDS, edited by Weber, on university library buildings; also includes floor plans and photographs to be used as illustrations. The second series "Additional Papers" consists of correspondence, journal article reprints, and other publications related to Weber’s research and interest in libraries. It also includes some ephemeral materials from his time at Stanford University.
