Scope and Contents

The materials consist of handwritten survey forms completed by Stanford students prior to presentations on LGBT issues in student dorms. Questions include: Do you have any gay friends? If a male/female friend of yours told you he/she were gay how would this affect your friendship? Has AIDS affected your attitude toward gay and lesbian people? If your roommate were gay, would you want them to tell you? If you told your parents you were gay, how do you think they would react? How would you react if you saw two men/women holding hands in public?
