Biographical/Historical note
The Office of the Vice Provost for Graduate Education (VPGE) opened in January 2007 to further Stanford University’s commitment to excellence in graduate education. The mission of the Office of the VPGE is to provide academic leadership that accelerates Stanford’s efforts to enhance the quality of graduate education by fostering innovation. The Office of the VPGE collaborates across campus with the schools and programs that have primary responsibility for organizing and delivering Stanford's graduate education. The VPGE promotes and creates innovative pilot programs to advance diversity, encourage interdisciplinary, and offer leadership and professional development opportunities for students.
