Scope and Contents
Four posters from the National School Walkout Demonstration held by Stanford students in front of Green Library on March 14, 2018.

Biographical / Historical
On March 14, 2018 students across the United States walked out in demonstrations, a month to the day after the mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas high school in Parkland, Florida. Stanford Students gathered outside of Green Library to call for stricter gun control laws and to discuss the larger problem of gun violence in communities of color.

Immediate Source of Acquisition
Posters collected from students by University Archives staff after demonstration.
