The film, which runs for 15 minutes, begins on Friday, April 21 with scenes of students preparing campus for Picnic Day. Friday’s activities also included judging contests for beef cattle, dairy cattle, and poultry for the Future Farmers of America. Footage of Saturday’s Picnic Day events commences with the Northern California Inter-High School Track Meet. Other parts of the event that are filmed include: a honey bee hive demonstration, fashion show, parade featuring the Cal Aggie ROTC unit as well as floats by living groups and campus clubs, band demonstrations including a performance by the Cal Aggie Marching Band, and a horse show. The recording ends with students cleaning up campus on Sunday.

Scope and Contents
From the container: “In the first Road Trip ever shot exclusively on a UC campus, Huell spends the day at UC Davis. All of the stops he made are open to the public as well as the students. Huell learned all about the famous bicycle culture of Davis at the Bike Barn, got up close and personal with some bugs at the Bohart Museum of Entomology and visited the beautiful UC Davis Arboretum. He also enjoyed a meal at the Segundo Dining Commons and a cup of coffee at the Coffeehouse, which is believed to be the largest student-run restaurant in the nation. Next it was off to the Department of Animal Science Horse Barn that has been around since 1910. Then, he visited the Native American studies department’s C.N. Gorman Museum and ended with a stop at the California Raptor Center. Huell got around on the student-run Unitrans that provides public transportation service to the entire city with over 40 buses on 15 routes, carrying more than three million passengers a year.”
