Biography
Wesley R. Wooden was born on October 17, 1912 at Elk River in Humboldt County, California. His parents were Ralph and Alina Brask Wooden. At the age of 12, Wooden took a summer job as a "chore boy" for the Russ Market Company Blocksburg Ranch in southern Humboldt County. He worked on ranches every summer until 1930, when he started college at Humboldt State College in Arcata, California. Wooden later attended the University of California at Berkeley part time from 1931-1940, taking classes in Engineering, Journalism, Forestry and Agricultural Economics. In February, 1937, Wooden worked on his first sheep ranch, located in Humboldt County, California.

In 1937, Wooden was appointed temporary Forest Ranger Inspector for Humboldt County in the United States Department of Agriculture's Range Rehabilitation program. In May, 1938, he accepted a job as foreman of a Russ Ranch, north of Vallejo. A bout with tuberculosis interrupted his studies at Berkeley in 1939, and he spent time convalescing on a Russ Market Company sheep ranch near Cape Mendocino, California.

In the spring of 1940, during his senior year, Wooden transferred to the University Farm School (now the University of California, Davis) in order to concentrate on animal science, While at the University Farm School, Wooden met fellow student, Katherine Lilienthal, who he married on December 19, 1940. Wesley and Katherine had three children: Wayne (1944- ), Marilyn (1949- ), and Joan (1952- ). In 1941, the Woodens managed Rancho Los Medanos in Contra Costa County; within the year, the United States Army had taken over the ranch to build Camp Stoneman. Beginning in 1941, Wooden worked as a ranch manager in Birds Landing in Solano County. In 1942, the Woodens leased a sheep and grain ranch in the Montezuma Hills near Rio Vista. In 1947, Wooden rented a ranch in Dixon. The Woodens moved permanently to Davis after purchasing a ranch in 1948.

Woojden became a registered Corriedale sheep breeder in Davis in 1948 and won numerous national and international awards for the quality of his sheep. In 1957, Wooden was named Outstanding Corriedale Breeder of the year. Wooden later worked as a Realtor for Brinley Real Estate, specializing in ranch and farm sales. He served as President of the Yolo County Board of Realtors in 1974, and was named Realtor of the year by the board in 1975.

In his later years, Wooden volunteered in civic affairs, youth related activities, and the Davis Senior Center. In 1985, Wooden received awards as "Senior Citizen of the Year" and the Brinley Award for Special Merit for service to the community, both sponsored by the City of Davis. In 2005, with the assistance of his son Wayne Wooden, Professor of Sociology at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, Wesley Wooden self-published his memoirs, titled, "Sheep Man: Time Remembered". The book is a compilation of Wooden's journals. In it, Wooden wrote that his "love of the land, all growing things, and my fellow man" was what led him to follow his path in life. Wesley Wooden died on November 11, 2005 in Davis at the age of 93.

Scope and Content
The Wesley R. Wooden Papers span the years from 1900 to 2005, with the bulk of the material falling between 1938 and 1985. The collection is arranged in seven series: 1. Biographical Materials, 2. Writings, 3. Work Records, 4. Pierce Ranch, 5. Ephemera and Realia, 6. Published Material, and 7. Photographic Materials. The collection contains material reflecting Wooden's early experiences as a ranch hand in Northern California, his life as a Corriedale sheep breeder and rancher in Yolo County, and his civic involvement with the city of Davis, California. The material related to Wooden's ranching years documents the sheep industry and the wool trade in California during the Great Depression, World War II and the 1950s.
