Biography

Leslie Malcolm Smith was born October 4, 1903 and graduated in 1922 from Oakland Technical High School. He received his B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of California, Berkeley.

From 1927 to 1942 Dr. Smith was stationed at the Deciduous Fruit Field Station of the University of California at San Jose, where he became known for his work on the biology and control of pests of prunes, pears, strawberries, walnuts, grapes, and berries.

After moving to Davis, Dr. Smith's interests shifted and he assumed the responsibility for a biological and ecological study of a quarantined pest, the Oriental Fruit Moth, first discovered in California in 1942. He also initiated studies on the control of the devastating infestations of mites on grapes.

Smith passed away in Carmel, California on February 10, 1976.

Scope and Content

The 5.6 linear feet of the Leslie Malcolm Smith Papers spans the years 1941-1951. The majority of the papers contain correspondence to researchers and growers regarding the control of crop pests. Also included are several subject files including a bibliography of Smith's works and newsletters by Davis Entomology staff about the work they were conducting in 1943.

Arrangement of the Collection

The papers are arranged in 2 series: 1. Correspondence and 2. Subject Files.

Indexing Terms

The following terms have been used to index the description of this collection in the library's online public access catalog.
