Abstract: A collection of papers and photographs collected by John L. Hardie, a former UC Davis alumnus and campus administrator. Material includes correspondence with other campus officials including Edwin C. Voorhies and Larry N. Vanderhoef; campus historic publications, recollections from Voorhies and Tracy I. Storer, and resources; speeches given by Hardie; and play books from The Bohemian Club of San Francisco. Additionally, this collection includes memorabilia from Prince Charles's 1977 visit to the UC Davis campus and a historic photograph of Edwin C. Voorhies receiving a commemorative gavel; the plaque from the gavel is also included.

Researchers should contact Special Collections to request collections, as many are stored offsite.

Biography

John L. Hardie (October 2, 1935 - September 8, 2011) was a UC Davis student (1958) and the first full-time manager of the Cal Aggie Alumni Association (CAAA). He also served as an administrator at both the university campus and the UC Davis Medical Center, acting as assistant to both Chancellors Mrak and Meyer. He also directed the Capital Campaign Project and the University's 75th Anniversary Program.
