Biography

In 1964, Hickey moved to California, where he became the first full-time regional Planning Director for the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG). During his tenure he oversaw the development of the first Bay Area Regional Plan, which balanced housing, open space, transit, and commercial growth. From 1970 to 1990 he worked as Planning Director for Napa County, during which time he led the effort to develop, expand, and maintain the Napa County Agricultural Preserve. As part of this effort, he proposed a clear definition of a winery and standards for winery and vineyard development. This proposal was ultimately implemented in 1990 by Napa County Ordinance 947.

Following his retirement from Napa County, Jim Hickey consulted for regional open space organizations. He served on the Board of the Jack L. Davies Agricultural Land Preservation Fund from 2002-2012 and as President of the Board of the Napa County Land Trust, helping to develop the Connolly Ranch Agricultural and Environmental Education Center in Napa.
