Abstract: The College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences Records include engineering drawings of several campus buildings and a group of photographs and videos related to presentations and celebratory events. Researchers should contact Special Collections to request collections, as many are stored offsite.

History
The College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences (CA&ES) is one of four colleges at the University of California, Davis. It includes fifteen departments, twenty centers and institutes, twelve research facilities, four museums and collections, and the Davis affiliates of the UC Cooperative Extension Agricultural Experiment Station.

Scope and Contents
The College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences Records include engineering drawings of several campus buildings, including Briggs Hall, Hutchinson Hall, Hunt Hall, Mrak Hall, Robbins Hall, and the Robert Mondavi Institute for Wine and Food Science. The collection also includes a group of photographs and videos related to presentations and celebratory events.

Access
Collection is open for research.
