Abstract: The Robert Mondavi Institute is home to the Department of Viticulture and Enology, the Department of Food Science and Technology, the Olive Center, the Honey & Pollination Center, and the Center for Wine Economics. The collection includes clippings, brochures, promotional materials, posters, videos, and photographs related to the Robert Mondavi Institute of Wine and Food Science.

Researchers should contact Special Collections to request collections, as many are stored offsite.

Administrative History
The Robert Mondavi Institute for Wine and Food Science (RMI) opened in 2008, funded by a 2001 gift from Robert Mondavi. The RMI is home to the Viticulture and Enology Department, the Food Science and Technology Department, the Olive Center, the Honey & Pollination Center, and the Center for Wine Economics.

"The [Robert Mondavi] Institute is the gateway between UC Davis and a broad community of scientists, engineers, entrepreneurs, policymakers, industry professionals and technologists engaged in all dimensions of wine, brewing- and food science-related activities."

Scope and Contents
The collection includes clippings, brochures, promotional materials, posters, videos, and photographs related to the Robert Mondavi Institute of Wine and Food Science.
