Language of Material: Collection materials in English.
Administrative History
The student newspaper began on September 29, 1915 as the Weekly Agricola. It was renamed the University Farm Agricola in 1916 and became the California Aggie in November 1922.
In 2010, the Aggie went from a Monday-Friday print publication schedule to publishing a print edition Monday-Thursday. In April 2013, the Aggie became a weekly print publication, issuing a printed newspaper on Thursdays. The Aggie updates the content on their website throughout the week.
Scope and Content
Special Collections began capturing the California Aggie website in October 2010 using the California Digital Library’s Web Archiving Service (WAS).
Please note that for all sites in WAS, a six-month embargo is placed on all captured content before it can be made publicly available.
Arrangement of the Collection
The captures are arranged in chronological order.
