Title: Frank Cancian papers
Identifier/Call Number: MS.F.034
Contributing Institution: Special Collections and Archives, University of California, Irvine Libraries
Language of Material: English
Physical Description: 9.9 Linear feet (9 boxes and 3 oversize folders)
Date (inclusive): 1957-2002
Abstract: Frank Cancian is a professor of anthropology at the University of California, Irvine. The materials in this collection focus mainly on Cancian's anthropological study of Mayan culture. Included are field notes, field interviews, diaries, research notes, and background research materials.

Creator: Cancian, Frank
Access
The collection has not been processed. It is open for research with the exception of written materials and non-digitized photographs from the Orange County Housecleaners project and interviews and non-digitized photographs from the Zinacantan project, both of which will be restricted for a period of 50 years from their date of creation.

Accruals
Accruals are expected.

Collection Scope and Content Summary
Frank Cancian is a professor of anthropology at the University of California, Irvine. The materials in this collection focus mainly on Cancian's anthropological study of Mayan culture. Included are field notes, field interviews, diaries, research notes, and background research materials.