Abstract: This collection comprises topical files of materials collected by dance historian and University of California, Irvine dance professor Olga Maynard for instruction and research purposes. These materials include correspondence, clippings, publications, photographs, programs and notebooks that document twentieth century ballet and modern dance. Additionally, the collection includes syllabi, reading lists, and course examinations created by Maynard while at UC Irvine; typescripts and notes for her publications; materials relating to various academic service on committees at UC Irvine; and audiocassettes of interviews with dancers and choreographers. Of particular interest for researchers are videocassettes of choreography; movies and television shows about dance in the twentieth century; and correspondence from noted ballet dancers and choreographers Marianna Tcherkassky, Anthony Tudor, Hugh Laing, and Suzanne Farrell.

Creator: Maynard, Olga
