Language of Material: English
Contributing Institution: Special Collections and Archives, University of California, Irvine Libraries
Title: Alberto F. Treviño, Jr. papers
Identifier/Call Number: MS.R.186
Physical Description: 1.5 Linear Feet1 record center box 1 telescoping boxCorrespondence, photographs, and one oversize laminated collage of clippings.
Date (inclusive): 1960-2014
Condition Description: The collection is in good condition. Box 2 includes three albums and one framed photograph.
Content Description
This collection documents various aspects of Alberto F. Treviño's career. He was a principle planner with the Irvine Company from 1961-1965. Treviño is perhaps best known for his role in spearheading the design and planning for Fashion Island shopping center in Newport Beach, California as well as the University Park and Turtle Rock neighborhoods in Irvine, California. He was also the principle planner for Laguna Niguel, California from 1958-1960 and served as assistant secretary in the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development under presidents Richard Nixon, Gerald Ford and George W. Bush. Treviño was the vice president of the Walt Disney Company from 1974-1975.
The collection includes correspondence, photographs, memos, meeting notes, project brochures, and personal material. The bulk of the collection is correspondence and photographs with White House officials. The collection also includes correspondence with members of the Walt Disney Company and materials related the Department of Housing and Development Soul City project.
Arrangement
Box 2: 3 Albums 1 Framed photograph
Box 3: Laminated collage clippings
Subjects and Indexing Terms
Orange County (Calif.) -- Planning -- 20th century