Historical Background
The Associated Students of the University of California, Irvine (ASUCI) is the undergraduate student government representing the students of UC Irvine. ASUCI also sponsors a variety of events and programs designed to increase campus spirit and offer recreational activities. They include annual traditions such as Shocktoberfest, Wayzgoose, Reggae Fest, Homecoming, Battle of the Bands, and bi-quarterly Vendor Fairs on Ring Road. Other events include regular Comedy Nites, free concerts at the Bren Events Center, and occasional guest speakers.
Scope and Content Summary
The collection comprises the records of the Associated Students, University of California, Irvine from 1974 to 2006. The materials in this collection consist mainly of photographs, invoices, receipts, business memoranda, correspondence, forms, internal affairs, organizing activities, backstage passes to events, and oversized posters for events such as Wayzgoose, Reggae Fest, Homecoming, and entertainment provided by ASUCI to the campus community.
An unprocessed addition documents the activities of the ASUCI from 1990-2016, though most material is from 2014-2016. All material is electronic. It includes photographs of ASUCI board members, governing documents, flyers, policies, information on programs, referendums, committees, and activities. The addition also includes a convocation speech, funding requests, agendas and minutes, budget reports, and Judicial Board documents (1990-2012).
