Abstract: The UCI Stories Video Oral Histories collection contains one hour videos of campus leaders, innovators, alumni, and other difference makers discussing UCI's bright past and brilliant future. These video histories capture conversations documenting UCI's founding; the history of schools, departments, and programs; and personal narratives. Conversations occurred from December 2014 to March 2016. All materials are digital. Each oral history includes videos, prompts used during the conversations, transcripts, and some contain video notes.

Access
The collection is open for research. Access copies of edited video histories, prompts, and other files may be viewed in the Online Archive of UCI History. Original preservation copies of all files are restricted and access copies must be made prior to use. Please contact Special Collections and Archives for more information.

Publication Rights
This material is provided for private study, scholarship, or research. Property rights reside with the University of California. Unless otherwise noted, copyrights reside with the University of California. It is the responsibility of the researcher to determine who holds the copyright and pursue the copyright owner or his or her heir for permission to publish where the UC Regents do not hold the copyright. Preservation Copies
The unedited footage is stored in Merritt. There are generally two or more files from the various cameras set up in the room (one for each individual and a wide-shot lens). Merritt also houses preservation copies of prompts, video notes, and transcripts.

Collection Scope and Content Summary
The UCI Stories Video Oral Histories collection contains videos of campus leaders, innovators, alumni, and other difference makers representing the diversity of UC Irvine in the broadest sense. These video histories capture conversations documenting UCI's founding, the history of schools, departments, and programs, and personal narratives. Filming began in December 2014 and continued until 2016. All materials are digital. Each oral history may include videos, prompts used during the conversations, transcripts, and some contain video notes.
Please note that all access copies are edited versions omitting questions from the narrator, breaks, and other components not essential to the conversation.
Please visit the UCI Stories portal at ucistories.lib.uci.edu

Processing History
This collection is considered minimally processed because digital objects are not described in ArchivesSpace. As received, video files were uploaded to Merritt and use copies created and uploaded to the Online Archives of UCI History.

Historical Background
UCI Stories was created in conjunction with the UCI Libraries' 50th anniversary historical documentation project. UCI Stories facilitated 50 discussion pairings of over 100 campus leaders, faculty, staff, alumni, students, community members, and other difference-makers representing the diversity of UCI in the broadest sense. Planning for UCI Stories began in 2013 and included consultation from the 50th Anniversary Committee. The goal of the project was to capture voices and stories not yet part of the university archives. The structure of the conversations was based on StoryCorps.
Collection Arrangement
Pairings are listed chronologically, in order of interview date.
