Guide to the University of California, Irvine, Department of African American Studies records AS.193

Special Collections and Archives, University of California, Irvine Libraries
(cc) 2017
The UCI Libraries
P.O. Box 19557
University of California, Irvine
Irvine 92623-9557
spcoll@uci.edu
URL: http://special.lib.uci.edu
Contributing Institution: Special Collections and Archives, University of California, Irvine Libraries
Title: University of California, Irvine, Department of African American Studies records
Creator: University of California, Irvine. Department of African American Studies
Identifier/Call Number: AS.193
Physical Description: 1.2 Linear Feet (2 boxes)
Date (inclusive): 1989-2008
Abstract: The UC Irvine Department of African American Studies was founded in 2016. It began as a multidisciplinary program for African American studies within the School of Humanities, offering a minor starting in 1991, and a major in 1998. This collection contains proposals, constitutions, and additional information on the approval for the African American Studies minor and major. It documents planning and long range development, course development, program review, events, guest speakers, and department administration.
Language of Material: English.
Access
The collection has not been processed. It may contain restricted materials. Please contact the Department of Special Collections and Archives in advance to request access.

Publications Rights
Property rights reside with the University of California. Copyrights are generally retained by the creators of the records and their heirs. It is the responsibility of the researcher to determine who holds the copyright and pursue the copyright owner or his or her heir for permission to publish where the UC Regents do not hold the copyright. For information on use, copyright, and attribution, please visit: http://special.lib.uci.edu/using/publishing.html

Preferred Citation
For the benefit of current and future researchers, please cite any additional information about sources consulted in this collection, including permanent URLs, item or folder descriptions, and box/folder locations.

Acquisition Information

Collection Scope and Content Summary
The UC Irvine Department of African American Studies was founded in 2016. It began as a multidisciplinary program for African American studies within the School of Humanities, offering a minor starting in 1991, and a major in 1998. This collection contains proposals, constitutions, and additional information on the approval for the African American Studies minor and major. It documents planning and long range development, course development, program review, events, guest speakers, and department administration.

Box 1 1989-2008
Series Scope and Content Summary
This box contains proposal for program; constitution; strategic planning and long range development plans; job ads; approved majors; courses and course development; brochure; space/move information; program review; emails; articles and other reference resources (1989-2007).

Box 2 1989-2008
Series Scope and Content Summary
This box contains event materials; task forces; guest speakers; friends of AFAM; major and minor information; and enrollment information (1996-2008).